PRICE THREE CENTS

H. C. HARTLEY, 80, DIES SUDDENLY THIS MORNING

Howard C. Hartley, 80, one of the founders of the Dougherty and Hartley dry goods store on center square, died suddenly at 4:15 o'clock this morning at his home, 361 Carlisle street. A heart attack caused death.

Mr. Hartley had been in his usual health Thursday and had worked at his store just as he had for the last half century with the exception of two brief periods of illness. He was short of breath Thursday evening and had retired about 7 o'clock. A physician was called when he was stricken early this morning but death occurred before the doctor arrived.

Dougherty and Hartley's store, which Mr. Hartley operated as a partner and for the last seven years as sole owner, has been a landmark in the town's business section with a record of 52 consecutive years on the same site. Today the store was closed until after the funeral services which have been set for Monday afternoon.

Started as Clerk

Mr. Hartley, who marked his eightieth birthday anniversary last November, was born in East Berlin. He was the last of nine children of the late John and Justina (Williams) Hartley. He came to Gettysburg in his middle teens and resided here since that time. He came to the county seat to take a position as a clerk in the dry goods store operated by George Spangler on the present site of the Plaza restaurant on the square.

In 1892 he and the late Dorsey Dougherty formed a partnership which continued until 1937 when Mr. Dougherty withdrew although the men continued to conduct the Dougherty and Hartley insurance agency which they formed years ago when they bought out the Pickling agency. Since Mr. Dougherty's death, January 26, 1941, Mr. Hartley and Edward Stine, an employee at the store, have conducted the fire and casualty insurance business under the old name.

Church Officer

Mr. Hartley was a director and vice president of the former Citizen's Trust company and for a number of years had been a director of the Evergreen cemetery association. He also was a member of the boards of directors of the Gettysburg Ice and Storage company and the Adams County Cold Storage company.

The deceased was a lifelong member of St. James Lutheran church. He was a church trustee and for many years was a member of the church council.

Mr. Hartley's wife, the former Miss Annie Artman, died in 1907.

Services On Monday

Surviving are these children: Mahlon A. Hartley, Staunton, Virginia; Robert C. Hartley, York, and Mrs. Ida Hartley Sperry, at home. There are five grandchildren.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender funeral home with the Rev. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of the deceased, officiating.

Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

FDR WILL NOT SIGN SOLDIER VOTE MEASURE

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Roosevelt notified Congress today he was letting the service vote bill become law without his signature even though he considered it "wholly inadequate" in providing service men and women an opportunity to ballot.

The Chief Executive sent a message to Capitol Hill announcing his intention to let the controversial measure become law at midnight tonight.

In it, he appealed to the states to cooperate in making the bill as "fully effective as its defective provisions will allow."

The measure would let service men and women overseas vote with federal ballots but only if they had applied for state ballots by September 1 and did not receive them by October 1. In addition, the governors of their states would have to certify that the ballots were authorized by state law.

Birth Announcements

Cpl. and Mrs. Dale J. Kime announce the birth of a son at the Beau Bridge, Louisiana, hospital Thursday. Cpl. Kime, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Kime, West Middle street, is now stationed in England.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cornett, Westminster, announce the birth of a son at the Warner hospital this morning.

ON WEST COAST

S. 2-c Francis J. Menchey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Menchey, Gettysburg R. 3, has been transferred from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station to the naval base, near Ludlow, California.

Commissioned

Winthrop Richard Hanawalt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hanawalt, Baltimore street, who has been commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He graduated last week from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, Texas. A graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940, he attended Penn State college before entering service.

"Y" WILL OPEN YOUTH CENTER; MEETING HELD

Election of a nominating committee and four directors and reports of various committees were among the matters of business at the annual membership meeting of the YWCA held Thursday evening at the "Y" with the president, Mrs. A. R. Wentz, presiding.

In one of the reports—Mrs. John Lenhart announced the establishment of a recreation center for youth of Gettysburg to be opened at the "Y" in the near future. Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Jr., chairman of the finance committee, announced that the annual drive for funds now in progress had reached the $2,030.40 mark.

Elected as members of the board were Mrs. A. R. Wentz, Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, Mrs. Richard A. Brown and Mrs. John Teeter. The nominating committee was named as Mrs. Lila Craig, Mrs. Norman Storck, Mrs. Walter Africa and Mrs. Milton Remmel.

Mrs. Ralph Gresh, chairman of the membership committee, was in charge of the program which opened with devotions by Miss Esther Tipton of the Business and Professional Girls' club. Miss Lona Black read scripture. Miss Janice Sachs, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Shadé, sang "The Lord's Prayer," by Millott, Nancy Ogden and Alice Plank presented a piano duet. "Calm as the Night" and "Welcome Sweet Spring Time" were sung by a chorus of Girl Reserves under the direction of Miss Elsie Hartzell.

Three guest soloists will appear with the choir. They are Pauline Lehman, soprano soloist in a Presbyterian church in York; Merle Lehman, tenor soloist in the Zion Lutheran church in the same city; and George M. Hershberger, baritone soloist of the choir of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary. John E. Sanderson will be the organist.

Miss Oma Furney presented the report for the Annie Danner club in the absence of the president, Miss Beulah Furney.

Mrs. John Lenhart, secretary of the Girl Reserve clubs, reviewed the work of the organization which includes groups from the seventh grade through high school. The Interclub council made up of all officers and committee chairmen meets regularly to plan the work for the clubs, she said.

Mrs. Lenhart announced that the new project—a center for recreation for the youth of Gettysburg, to be opened soon at the YWCA will be patterned somewhat after the "Hangout" of the Lancaster, York and Harrisburg "Y" organizations.

$768.15 Needed To Reach Red Cross War Fund Quota

The Adams County Red Cross War Relief Campaign was within easy reach of its goal of $26,500 at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

With large sums turned in by the Upper Adams county and East Berlin districts this morning the fund had risen to $25,731.85 this afternoon, just $768.15 short of the goal set for the county by the National Red Cross. The drive is scheduled to close at midnight tonight.

There are several unreported districts and officials are hopeful that when all the returns are in the quota will be exceeded.

It was announced this afternoon that donors who are unable to get their contributions to the Red Cross offices at closing time this afternoon may turn in their donations at the Hotel Gettysburg up to midnight tonight.

Youngest Solicitor

The $1,363.85 turned in by H. Earl Pitzer, chairman, and John R. Fidler, co-chairman of the Upper Adams county district this morning brought to $5,076.46 the amount already turned in from the Biglerville—Arendtsville—Iaville—Aspers-Bendersville and Gardners area. Last year the Upper Adams county section secured $4,220.25.

Miss Ruth Koontz Aspers, solicitor, who is believed to be one of the youngest solicitors in the county, was given special praise by Mr. Pitzer and Mr. Fidler. The 15-year-old Aspers girl turned in $65.50 from the Aspers area under her supervision.

Mr. Pitzer and Mr. Fidler today asked those people in the upper community who wish to give additional donations, or who have not been solicited, to call either of the chairman or the nearest solicitor this evening so that the section may complete its report tonight.

East Berlin Reports

Paul Schwartz, president of the East Berlin Lions club which conducted the drive in the East Berlin—Abbottstown-Hampton area, turned in $1,047.45 this morning to bring to $1,097.30 the amount collected in that area. The sum is far greater than last year when the area produced $688.48 during the annual Red Cross drive. The contributions Local workers engaged at the donor station included Mrs. Earl Bowen, Mrs. C. E. Bliehner, Mrs. John Sanderson and Mrs. P. J. McClynn, staff assistants; the Misses Marion Bergen, Grace Gottsel and Eleanor and Rachael Zimmerman, Gettysburg college girls handling wraps; Mrs. Barton Foth, Mrs. Sidney Poppy and Mrs. George T. Raffensperger, nurses, and Mrs. Patricia Goodwin, Mrs. Howard Sheets, Mrs. Robert Kenworthy and Mrs. Francis Mason, nurses' aides.

Mrs. R. S. Saby, head of the canter committee, was serving in the dining room assisted by Mrs. Robert Shafer and Mrs. Charles Yost, of Biglerville. Mrs. John Kaltreider was in charge of the kitchen where a committee of women from St. Francis Xavier Catholic church, headed by Mrs. Edgar P. Hamilton, and including Mrs. Dora Beall and Mrs. M. J. Flynn were working. Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, assistant canter chairman, was also assisting in the kitchen.

Mrs. George Boehmer was in charge of registrations. Lieut. (jg) Douglas H. Robinson was the doctor in charge.

Arrive Overseas

Sgt. Mark Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Becker, South Washington street, is now stationed in England.

FILE ESTATE BOND

An administration bond in the estate of Mary C. Baker, late of Hamiltonbar township has been filed at the court house. R. Mervin Singley, McKnightstown, and Donald F. Baker, Biglerville R. 1, are administrators of the $1,800 estate.

SERVING ON TRANSPORT

Robert M. Shaw, Tarentum, a graduate of Gettysburg college with the class of 1942, has been assigned as physical education instructor and chaplain's assistant aboard the Coast Guard manned transport U. S. S. Samuel Chase, now overseas.

Shaw was a member of the Bullet track squad while attending college.

Trainers Of Fliers

Jasper E. Wright

Jasper Earl Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Wright, was born in Stewartsville, Virginia, February 11, 1918. He attended the Stewartsville grade schools and graduated from Stewartsville high school in 1935.

Wright started his flying career as a private student at Somerset Hills airport, Basking Ridge, New Jersey, in September, 1940. In June, 1941, he received his private pilot's certificate. From June, 1941, until July, 1942, he flew privately and as a member of the New Jersey Civil Air Defense Service. The organization was incorporated in the Civil Air Patrol of which Wright became an active member until July, 1942, when he was sent by the CAA to the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics to take a secondary instructor's refresher course which he completed in September, 1942, and received his commercial pilot certificate with instructor's rating.

The cover of Airfax contains a full-page color photograph of Major Worley. Inside are two pages of pictures taken at Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz. A tribute to the young officer is contained in a recent issue of Airfax, tabloid publication published at Williams Field.

An article on the Adams county man, which accompanies the photographs, reveals that he led plane formations in the motion picture, "A Guy Named Joe."

Following completion of the refresher course he was employed by the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics for several days previously while being instructed in his duties at Guise.

Couple Observes 35th Anniversary

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sanders, Fairfield, Thursday evening in celebration of their 35th wedding anniversary. The children presented their parents with two platform rockers. The couple received many other gifts and greetings. The figure "35" was carried out in refreshment decorations.

SEES BURMA AS OBJECTIVE FOR NEW INVASION

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Associated Press War Analyst

The strange medley of fighting in the fearsome jungles of Burma is taking on a very definite pattern in which we can recognize planned and coordinated spade-work for the ultimate amphibious invasion of that country when we hit the final stretch of trail for Tokyo.

It is southeastern Asia's counter-part of the Allied preparatory work in the Pacific. We have a fine example of the latter in today's news of the trio of attacks on important Japanese bases—the bombardment of the island of Palau, only 550 miles from the Philippines, by an American fleet; MacArthur's first aerial attack on the great enemy base of Truk, and his bombing of Hollandia, an enemy stronghold on New Guinea.

What Is the Lure?

What, think you, is the lure which draws our leather-faced Lt. General Joseph Stilwell personally into the steaming Burmese hell, when he has important work elsewhere as our commander in chief for China, Burma and India? Our Brigadier General Frank Merrill with his specially trained jungle fighters from the Pacific? Or Britain's mystery soldier, Major General Orde Wingate—jungle specialist extraordinary who led his famous Wingate raiders in their sensational invasion of Burma a year ago?

Well, these key men aren't in Burma because of any special new threat from the enemy. This assemblage of the chiefs of the jungle fighting clan means that Burma is being prepared for the day when a water-borne invasion will sweep into it from the Bay of Bengal.

These new Allied operations (or at least part of them) had their birth as I understand it, at the Allied conference of Quebec last August. Wingate's amazing and useful adventure with his column of raiders among the Japanese of Burma had attracted Prime Minister Churchill's attention and the jungle-fighter was invited to Quebec.

Coordinate Drives

There it was decided that Wingate should head another expedition—the one now in operation in conjunction with Stilwell's drive and Merrill's specially trained killers. U.S. Chief of Staff Marshall is said to have promised Wingate American air support (which he is getting) and also sent to India the men now serving as marauders under Merrill. Incidentally, Charles J. Rolo, British author of "Wingate's Raiders," tells me that both Wingate's present expedition and Merrill's men were given a post-graduate course in central India's fiercest jungle for months in preparation for the present job.

Fierce and bloody fighting is in progress in northern Burma. It is hottest in the zone surrounding the big Japanese base of Myitkyina, and just over the Indian border in the state of Manipur which the Japanese have invaded.

To Oust Enemy

The Allied offensive is aimed at driving the enemy out of the north-east tip of Burma so that land communication with China can be re-established. That communication was cut when we lost the Burma Road. We now want to run a highway across Burma so as to join the Chinese end of the Burma Road and the new road which has been built through India to Leda on the north-western border of Burma.

In order to knock the Japanese out of that region we must have the important rail-head of Myitkyina. So Stilwell is pushing southward towards that base with his Chinese troops. Merrill with his jungle fighters is on Stilwell's right. A British expedition is on "Uncle Joe's" left. Wingate with his glider troops is south of the town and is supported by another British column.

One assumes that the Allies are trying to capture Myitkyina before the monsoon deluge comes in a month or so to halt major fighting.

As for the Nipponese "Invasion" of India, General Sir Claude Auchinleck, Allied commander in chief in India, assures us that the security of India "has never been in danger."

Fewer Rabbits To Worry Gardeners

Gettysburg, March 31 (AP)—Pennsylvania's city victory gardeners can count on about 34,000 fewer vegetable-chewing rabbits to worry about this year.

"We've trapped and transferred to rural sections about 25,000 rabbits and expect to increase the number by almost 10,000 in the next two weeks or 30 days," Director Seth Gordon of the State Game Commission said today.

He also declared the commission has had some success in a pheasant-trapping program when some tomato growers and farmers complained of damage done by the birds. When caught, the pheasants are taken to areas where shortages have been reported.

BRITISH LOSE 96 PLANES IN REICH SMASH

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

London, March 31 (AP)—A great armada of RAF bombers numbering probably more than 1,000 smashed at the southern German transport center and Nazi congress city of Nuernberg and other points in the Reich last night at a cost of 96 planes—the heaviest toll ever taken of an Allied air fleet in a single operation.

The record loss was announced just as the entire German network with the exception of Vienna in old Austria shut down this morning shortly after the warning that "enemy planes are approaching."

The first German warning said the daylight raiders were over Hessen-Nassau province in Prussia in which Frankfurt is situated.

17th March Raid

The RAF's announced loss, which contrasted to German claims of having inflicted the greatest defeat of the war on the British Air Force with the shooting down of 132 four-engined bombers, was incurred in the 17th heavy bomber operation in March by the British sky fleet.

The big attack force, which probably was one of the largest ever sent out; the daylight raiders streaking over the Reich, and a huge fleet—largest group of heavy bombers ever to strike a target from the Mediterranean—which raided Sofia in Bulgaria yesterday wound up the biggest month yet in the European air war.

The attack on Nuernberg—the scene of Adolf Hitler's pre-war Nazi party rallies and the peacetime center of the toy industry—was the 17th of the war on that city.

Blast Airfields

It was carried out while British intruders ranged over the continent shooting up airfields in France, the Low Countries and Germany itself and while a small force of German raiders was giving London its first alert in three nights.

The official description of the Nuernberg raid as "very great strength" suggested that in the neighborhood of 2,240 short tons of bombs had fallen on the city where 108 acres of the built-up area had been devastated by previous blows.

BABY IS ABANDONED

Beaver Falls, Pa., March 31 (AP)—A well-formed eight pound baby boy, abandoned Wednesday evening on a doormat here, is being cared for at Providence Hospital while a score of families seek to adopt it. Apparently about six weeks old, the infant is healthy, though under-nourished, his nurses say.

Nazi Fatigue Cap Found By Children

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Hartz doesn't know what to think about a uniform cap her children brought in from the front yard.

From the German eagle and insignia above the visor, she concludes it's a Nazi Air Force fatigue cap. A name linked on the lining looked like "M. Schmidt," she said.

Neighbors have examined all sorts of possibilities, including one that the cap was discarded by a prisoner fleeing an internment camp.

Mr. Hartz says she wouldn't be surprised, however, if an American soldier back from overseas turns up to claim his souvenir.

BRITISH QUIT FORWARD BASE IN BURMA AREA

By PRESTON GROVER

New Delhi, March 31 (AP)—British forces have surrendered Tiddim, their forward base, in the Chin hills of Burma, 100 miles below Imphal, Gen. Sir Claude Auchinleck, British commander in India, told the Indian legislature today.

The disclosure was made almost simultaneously with the announcement in a communiqué from Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten that Japanese jungle parties spread over a front of nearly 200 miles were persistently probing deeper into eastern India's defenses and had penetrated into the main communications of the vital Manipur plain.

Auchinleck declared, however, that Imphal itself was strongly defended and declared such penetration was not likely to be of major importance.

Heavy Opposition

At the same time he announced that British forces fighting their way north from Tiddim through Japanese road blocks had joined other British forces which fought their way southward along the road from Imphal.

A communiqué from Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters said one raiding party broke through to the main road running north from Imphal, capital of Manipur state, to Kohima, 60 miles to the north, and although this party was forced away after it had damaged a bridge and carried out some ambushing still other Japanese were able to lay down mortar fire on the highway.

Another Japanese infiltration party was reported to the north of Kohima, striking at the communications of that center on the road to the Brahmaputra valley and the main Allied supply system.

While air-borne commandos again carried out a daring strike, raiding the airfield of Aniskan and destroying an aircraft, British and American aviators carried out a record series of operations for this theater, making 850 sorties and losing but one plane.

Kill 300 Japs.

The combined force of all-American marauders of Brig. Gen. Frank Merrill and Chinese holding a road-block at Laban in the Mogaung valley, 41 airline miles from the Myitkyina railway, killed more than 300 Japanese attacking both to the north and south from their pocket below Shaduzap.

On the Arakan front where the British are fighting to clear the way for an advance on Akyab, the Japanese were reported putting up strong resistance on high ground overlooking the eastern tunnel where they are dug in on the Butcheraung-Maungdaw road. The capture of the western tunnel was announced yesterday.

SQUATTY CUBAN LUGS OLD STICK TO BIG LEAGUES

By FRITZ HOWELL

New York, March 31 (AP) — He brought along his own bat from home this year — did Roberto (Bobby) Estalella, Philadelphia Athletics outfielder who hit a rousing .259 last season.

And don't laugh at that .259, for it was tops for the team's regulars. And Roberto wants to remain tops — that's why he brought along the war club with which he bludgeoned his way this winter to a .336 average in the Cuban league.

At that, the weapon must be easier to wield than it is to pronounce, for it is made of maguey wood, which comes from the tropical pariti tillaceum tree.

We'd like to be there the day the A's play Washington, and Estalella swings his pariti tillaceum limb at some puzzling pitch from Alejandro Carrasquel.

The Brooklyn-Phillies Red Cross game, scheduled for today at Ebbets Field, has been booted back to April 13, and the Dodgers will try to get in their twice-postponed game with West Point this afternoon.

IN TRAINING CAMPS American League

Washington — Cuban Luis Aurez looks like winner of third base sweepstakes, although Skipper Ossie Blaize is doubtful of his hitting.

Chicago — Hal Trosky, who quit two years ago because of headaches after averaging .313 and hitting 216 homers in nine years for Cleveland, makes debut under Jimmy Dykes Saturday as White Sox meet Pittsburgh at Louisville.

Detroit — Don Ross, handyman who has played all infield and outfield positions in two years, may replace Rudy York at first if Rudy goes into service. Tigers may make deal for Franklin Heller of Buffalo for first base spot, too.

Cleveland — Jeff Heath and Buddy Rosar only absences, as catcher Jim Devlin, Wilkes-Barre '43, ends holdout. Charles (Red) Embree, who fanned 211 for Wilkes-Barre in 41, enroute to Camp by bus from California after draft board turned thumbs down.

St. Louis — Luke Sewell finally has three outfielders — Frank DeMarce, who has been ill; Harold Epps, 1-A but willing to play a while, and Milton Byrnes.

Boston — Joe Cronin will try outfielder Leon Culberson at short, and outfielder George Metkovich at first base, in first exhibition game Saturday against Curtis Bay Coast Guard.

New York — Second baseman George Stirnweiss called home by death of grandfather, but hoped to be back for week-end exhibitions.

National League

Philadelphia — Outfielder Coaker Triplett, convalescing from flu, now has heavy chest cold and missed practice. Pitcher Dale Mathewson, hospitalized with bronchitis, undergoing tonsillectomy next week.

Chicago — Lou Novikoff, explaining wife's illness has delayed him, promised to report next week.

Cincinnati — Frank McCormick, star first sacker, has "limited service" arm. Hurts, he says, when he tries to throw hard ones.

St. Louis — Big Mort Cooper has sore arm, but hopes warmer weather will erase kinks. Team worked outside in 41-degree temperature.

Pittsburgh — Frankie Frisch said only zero weather could keep Pirates from outdoor workout today. Saled boys needed preparation for Saturday clash with White Sox.

Boston — Outfielder Tommy Holmes pounded out three line singles as regulars whipped Yannigans 9-1. Ben Cardoni held losers to one scratch hit in his three innings on mound.

New York — Double drill on tap today as weather washed out yesterday's practice. Hugh Luby, second sacker who played 866 in a row for San Francisco, reports.

Brooklyn — Prexy Branch Rickey urges all major league clubs to pool excess talent to keep game going, should 4-F players be called into essential industry. Says he's willing to lease-lend about 50 players to his opponents.

Utah Captures Cage Title In New York

New York, March 31 (AP) — Two weeks ago today Utah's basketball kids were eliminated in the first round of the National Invitation tourney, but today they're kings of the country's eagles.

Last night in Madison Square Garden, before 18,125 fans who paid $35,000, which was turned over to the Red Cross, the blitz kids stormed to a 43-36 victory over St. John's of Brooklyn, which won the invitation tourney after the Utes stumbled over Kentucky in the opening game.

Utah got into the national college meet when Arkansas dropped out, and battled its way to the title.

The Utes were underdogs last night as the winners of the two big tourneys tangled, but forward Arnold Ferrin scored 17 points to lead them to victory.

MANAGER DIES

Monongahela, Pa., March 31 (AP) — John L. Cochran, 55, manager and secretary of the Liggett Spring & Axle company, died unexpectedly yesterday.

New Powder May Stop Wet Grounds

St. Louis, March 31 (AP) — "Game postponed, wet grounds," may disappear from baseball language if a chemically-treated resin combination developed by a powder company performs as well on the baseball diamond as it has for the armed forces.

It makes soil waterproof. Roads treated with the substance remain dusty even though covered with several inches of water, and Theodore Marvin, of the Hercules Powder company, thinks it will do the same thing for basepaths, pitchers' mounds, and batters' boxes.

"Of course we can't tell for certain x x x because we've been busy developing it for the army, but we'll soon know," Marvin said in an interview.

"The Wilmington, Del. park of the Inter-State league is being treated this week. Judging from the rain the Phillies encountered in spring training there, our product should get a rigid test."

Only parts of the infield not covered by grass can be treated.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 31 (AP) — Major league managers have good reason to moan about their player losses this spring, but how would they like to lose Phil Rizzuto, Benny McCoy, Vince Smith, Don Padgett, Dom DiMaggio, Tom Earley and Charley Wagner off one club between seasons? . . . That's what happened to Bos'n Gary Bodie, coach of the Norfolk Naval Training Station baseballers. . . . The sailors will play more than 100 games against such clubs as the Norfolk Naval Air Station, Dick Porter's Curtis Bay, Md., Coast Guard outfit, which includes Sid Gordon and Mickey Witek; the Bainbridge, Md., sailors who recently acquired Dee Miles to back up an infield of Elbie Fletcher, Bud Blattner, Fred Chapman and Sherry Robertson; Luke Appling's Fort Lee, Va., soldiers, and Ernie White's Fort Bragg, N. C., team.

Add Three Bouts To Monday Card

Pittsburgh, March 31 (AP) — Three more bouts have been added to Monday night's Gardens card which will feature Billy Miller, Pittsburgh lightweight with a string of 25 straight wins, and Lulu Costantino of New York, matchmaker Jake Mintz announced today.

Vince Dell Orto, stablemate of Costantino, meets Joey Amico, Philadelphia featherweight, in the eight-round semi-final, and Phil Muscato of Buffalo is matched with Otto Blackwell, Homestead middleweight, in one six-round. Buster Peaks of Detroit and Roy Chapman of Philadelphia, middleweights, meet in another six.

John D. Vorce, clowning Detroit heavyweight, has been signed for a six-round against an opponent yet to be named, and a four-round curtain-raiser will be added to the card. Mintz announced.

NEW TAXES GO INTO EFFECT ON APRIL FOOL DAY

Washington, March 31 (AP) — Beginning with April Fool's Day at midnight tonight, a lot of new taxes go into effect, and no fooling.

New excise rates, ranging from a six-fold jump in cabaret check levies to a dollar-a-barrel increase on beer, will yield an estimated $1,000,000,000 or more a year.

Another $1,315,000 or so will come from higher postal rates that went into effect last Sunday and from changes in individual and corporation income taxes.

More than half of the increased take from excises will come from steeper liquor levies; a $9-a-gallon impost on hard liquors compared with the present $6 rate; the new $8-a-barrel beer tax, and wine increases ranging from 33 1/3 to 100 per cent.

Tax on Luxuries

The rest comes from new rates that will hike the cost of such luxuries as fur coats, jewelry and club memberships, make traveling more expensive and send up bills on such varied items as toilet goods, electric light bulbs, telephone and telegraph service and luggage.

And the definition of luggage, incidentally, has been broadened to include not only trunks and suitcases but handbags, purses, wallets and even key and pass cases.

An exception to the midnight effective date of the new rates is the 30 per cent cabaret tax which goes into effect at 10 a. m. tomorrow to avoid complications that would arise from trying to compute checks on two tax bases.

Summary of Changes

Here in summary form are the principal tax changes:

New Rate

Admissions 1 cent a nickel
Boxes, seats and ticket scalpers 20%
Cabaret charges 30%
Club dues and initiations 20%
Jewelry (*), furs and toilet preparations 20%
Travel tickets 15%
Light bulbs (msgr's price) 20%
Long distance calls 25%
Local phone service 15%
Telegrams 25%

(*) Watches that retail for not more than $65 and alarm clocks for not more than $5 to be taxed at present 10 per cent rate.

FRAUDULENT CLAIM

Altoona, Pa., March 31 (AP) — William Junior Wertman, 23, of Duncansville R. D. (Blair county), pleaded innocent at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Arthur F. Hirt here Wednesday to charges of making false statements which led to filing of fraudulent claims by welders while employed at a shipyard at Baltimore, Maryland. He waived hearing and posted $1,000 for federal court at Baltimore.

The call, in Board One at least, is in addition to a second April pre-induction call which will be for men classified in 1-A and available for military service, subject to appeals.

This second regular call is also scheduled to go out within the next day or so.

The supplemental calls came as somewhat of a surprise, following as they did closely on the receipt by the local boards of the new regulations affecting men under 26.

The cause of this maneuvering, it seems, is that in 1937 Pie Traynor, then manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, labelled the 32-year-old fly-chaser a non-hustler. After playing 32 games for the Bucs, Dickshot spent the rest of the season as well as the 1938 campaign as a pinch-hitter.

"I always did my best in a game," says Dickshot. "But I made one fatal mistake. I talked back to Traynor x x x."

"I'm determined to stay with the White Sox this year. At my age, this is my last chance."

Dickshot went to the Pirates in 1936 after notching a .347 for Buffalo of the International league.

NAVY WIVES

Among the risks all women run. There is that suit of navy blue with stripes of gold, a half and one;

If very lucky, sometimes two, which captivate them so they'll be. The wives of men who go to sea.

At first the glamour's surely there! Until to distant ports he sails, would seem with such a suit to wear.

The sailor's luckiest of males; And cold, indeed, would be the maid who'd scorn a "striped, junior grade."

But as the days go fleeting by The navy wife begins to see, As one could do with an eye. Her life's not all that it might be.

He goes to sea, upon command,

And leaves her sitting on the land.

Oh, Admiral King! if you but knew The thought of all the navy wives Who blame their loneliness on you And tell how you have spoiled their lives.

I'm sure your order next would be: "Send only bachelors to sea!"

Today's Talk

"BE IT EVER SO HUMBLE"

The citadel of a Nation is the Home. It is the nesting place, from which springs everything precious and enduring in a free State. From the humblest of these homes have often come the most substantial of all leaders and rulers, as well as those who contribute so much to the arts and sciences, without which little progress can be made.

At the Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893 was exhibited a painting that drew great attention. It was entitled "Breaking Home Ties." The boy stood at the doorway, with the Mother and other members of the family—including the faithful dog. He was about to face the big world away from home. Most of us can imagine what went through his mind. Soon he would be gone. Home would be far away—held only in memory.

Never before, or since, have I suffered from "home sickness" as I did the first week at College over a thousand miles from home. I wanted to leave everything and go back. Something beyond expression has been bequeathed to me that never before had I come to realize. But I was not alone with this feeling. It was common to all.

"Be it ever so humble," can never be any place like home. Millions of boys right now are learning this fact. They are homesick for the simple, once-neglected things that clustered about their homes. They want to know about things that they once never cared about. They want letters. They want something to stop up the cracks in their hearts, where the cold winds of loneliness and home sickness blow in.

No matter how wonderful and glorious our experiences away from home may be, it's the journey back that is the most thrilling. The home port always looks best.

There's a lot of God-made gold in the make-up of anyone who gets home-sick. It's as universal as love. And it always takes love to cure it! Love for something left behind—something that nourished us in the mind. Soon he would be home long ago.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Use."

LABOR PARTY IS SPLIT OVER RED ELEMENT

By SAMUEL G. BLACKMAN
New York, March 31 (AP)—The turbulent career of the American Labor Party, organized in 1936 to support President Roosevelt in his home state, was climaxed Thursday by secession of right wing leaders, who said the party was now Communist-dominated.

Having lost control of the state committee in Tuesday's primary to a left wing-CIO coalition, the right wing quit the party last night after declaring "another experiment in independent labor political action has failed."

Their statement said "Earl Browder (Communist leader) has captured the American Labor Party."

Politicians pondered what effect the split would have on the developing presidential campaign.

May Affect FDR

The withdrawing leaders admitted concern for "the effect the disappearance of the ALP as a liberal-labor party may have on the Roosevelt strength in our state" should he seek re-election.

The ALP, whose state committee makes the party's presidential nomination, gave Mr. Roosevelt 300,000 votes in 1936. In 1940 it gave him 400,000—more than the margin by which he won New York's 47 electoral votes.

The left wing is as ardently in support of a fourth term for the President as the right wing, but the latter said during the campaign it "did not want to put the President on the spot" with a nomination from "a Communist-controlled American Labor Party."

Their statement of withdrawal said:

"It will be our duty to rally the hundreds of thousands of voters in the Empire state, who voted for the ALP in the past but who would shun a Communist-ALP, to the banner of President Roosevelt."

Committee of 22

"If our task has been made infinitely harder by the death of the ALP, we shall have to apply ourselves to this task of saving New York for Roosevelt and for the New Deal with greater vigor and all-out devotion."

A committee of 22 was named "to formulate plans for future political activity." The right wing said it would take no part in the state convention to be called shortly by the left wing.

The left wing, of whose New York County Committee Representative Vito Marcantonio is chairman, had the support of Sidney Hillman, chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee.

Hillman, whose organization was assailed by the Dies Committee in Washington Wednesday, declined to comment on the right wing withdrawal. But earlier, in reply to Dies, he said "the ALP voters conclusively and overwhelmingly demonstrated that the American people can no longer be swayed by the hysterical cry of Communism, which is Mr. Dies' only stock in trade."

CHAPLIN CITES DEATH THREAT

Los Angeles, March 31 (AP)—White-haired Charlie Chaplin was recalled to the witness stand today to enact one of the most dramatic roles of his long, colorful career—a further denial of government charges he transported his former protege, Joan Berry, to New York and back for immoral purposes.

The 54-year old comedian's first day on the stand was climaxed by one big moment that rivaled in tenseness that of Miss Berry's final day of testimony last Friday when she neared collapse as the defense introduced some of her letters to him.

Tears welled in Chaplin's eyes and he dabbed at them with a handkerchief as he related yesterday that the 24-year-old Miss Berry, armed with pistol, came to his Beverly Hills home one night and said: "I'm going to kill you."

Earlier, he vigorously refuted Miss Berry's previous claim that they had been intimate, both in the film actor's suite at New York's Waldorf-Astoria hotel in October, 1942, and following her return to California.

These claims by her are the basis of the government's two Mann act violation charges against Chaplin.

TEACHERS HEAR FAMOUS LEADER

Dr. Willis A. Sutton, prominent educational leader who has earned a wide reputation in both the United States and Canada as a speaker, addressed the Frederick County Teachers' Association Monday night in the Frederick high school auditorium.

Dr. Sutton said that a long war is likely, probably lasting until 1949 or 1950, and that educational adjustments cannot wait until after the war but should be made now.

He said there is a widespread public inertia toward education, pointing out that the schools have made a tremendous contribution to the war effort but have received very little recognition for it.

Mrs. L. J. Hoppe, of Collingswood, New Jersey, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, South Washington street.

JURORS PONDER LIFE'S FUTURE OF LONERGAN

By JAMES H. PORTERFIELD

New York, March 31 (AP)—Twelve middle-aged business men, who watched from the jury box as attorneys battled over Wayne Lonergan's life began consideration today of the state demand that he die in the electric chair as the slayer of his wealthy wife.

Only the instructions of general sessions court judge James Garrett Wallace remained to be delivered before the jurors received the swiftly-concluded case.

There was a strong possibility Lonergan would learn his fate before nightfall.

Accusations hurled at the 26-year-old Canadian aircraftsman in the closing phases failed to dent the stoic composure he maintained throughout the two-week trial.

Called a Killer

Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet denounced him as a "cold blooded and deliberate" killer and accused him of battering and choking his wife to death because she had changed her will, denying him a share of her millions.

Defense Attorney Edward V. Broderick vigorously defended him as a "carefree country boy" duped by the city slickers on the district attorney's staff.

Although cafe society members colored the parade of witnesses, it was not until the summations that Broderick and the prosecutor turned the spotlight boldly on the wealth and background that made the slaying one of New York's most sensational crimes in years.

The prosecutor based his case primarily on Lonergan's confession.

Rationing Roundup

(The Associated Press)

Shame On You Science

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Michael O'Shea, keeper of the kangaroos, burst into Curator Roger Conant's office at the Philadelphia zoo yesterday shouting "twins for Susie!" and thereby made a liar out of science.

For Susie is a kangaroo, and Susie had had twins, and science which was shocked to learn that kangaroos don't do such things.

A zoological impossibility, Conant said only two years ago, "because nature made room in a kangaroo's pouch for only one infant."

Susie herself found that out. The twins were discovered, Conant said, when the mother, apparently feeling cramped, kicked one of the youngsters out onto the floor.

While the other stayed snug in Susie's driver's seat, O'Shea home-made a pouch for the orphan, using an old silk stocking. Conant bedded the babe down near a radiator, gave him a shot of black leopard milk (because it was the only baby food handy), and hoped for the best.

The twins' papaya was the late "Pete," a well-known boxer, who often sparred with Tommy Loughran, the former light heavyweight champion. Conant thinks they probably were born before Pete died last January 31, but he can't really say because kangaroos, only about an inch long at birth, seldom peep from mother's pouch until they're several months old.

The boy responded: "Pretzel."

LABOR PARTY IS SPLIT OVER RED ELEMENT

By SAMUEL G. BLACKMAN

New York, March 31 (AP)—The turbulent career of the American Labor Party, organized in 1936 to support President Roosevelt in his home state, was climaxed Thursday by secession of right wing leaders, who said the party was now Communist-dominated.

Having lost control of the state committee in Tuesday's primary to a left wing-CIO coalition, the right wing quit the party last night after declaring "another experiment in independent labor political action has failed."

Their statement said "Earl Browder (Communist leader) has captured the American Labor Party."

Politicians pondered what effect the split would have on the developing presidential campaign.

May Affect FDR

The withdrawing leaders admitted concern for "the effect the disappearance of the ALP as a liberal-labor party may have on the Roosevelt strength in our state" should he seek re-election.

The ALP, whose state committee makes the party's presidential nomination, gave Mr. Roosevelt 300,000 votes in 1936. In 1940 it gave him 400,000—more than the margin by which he won New York's 47 electoral votes.

The left wing is as ardently in support of a fourth term for the President as the right wing, but the latter said during the campaign it "did not want to put the President on the spot" with a nomination from "a Communist-controlled American Labor Party."

Their statement of withdrawal said:

"It will be our duty to rally the hundreds of thousands of voters in the Empire state, who voted for the ALP in the past but who would shun a Communist-ALP, to the banner of President Roosevelt."

Committee of 22

"If our task has been made infinitely harder by the death of the ALP, we shall have to apply ourselves to this task of saving New York for Roosevelt and for the New Deal with greater vigor and all-out devotion."

A committee of 22 was named "to formulate plans for future political activity." The right wing said it would take no part in the state convention to be called shortly by the left wing.

The left wing, of whose New York County Committee Representative Vito Marcantonio is chairman, had the support of Sidney Hillman, chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee.

Hillman, whose organization was assailed by the Dies Committee in Washington Wednesday, declined to comment on the right wing withdrawal. But earlier, in reply to Dies, he said "the ALP voters conclusively and overwhelmingly demonstrated that the American people can no longer be swayed by the hysterical cry of Communism, which is Mr. Dies' only stock in trade."

Birth Announcements: A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Guise, Hanover street, at the Warner hospital, Sunday.

AIR COMMANDOS CARRIED JEEPS IN GLIDERS TO BURMA JUNGLES

By FRANK L. MARTIN
Headquarters of the American Air Commando Force, the India-Burma Border, March 26 (Delayed) (AP)—Flight Officer Jackie Coogan of the American Air Commandos, first glider pilot to land Allied troops behind the Japanese lines in Burma, came back to his base today to relate how he was "taken for a god" by native Burmese when they saw him light on their paddy fields.

Coogan expressed his disappointment over missing an encounter with his enemy.

The former film star, tired and dirty, spent four days in Japanese-occupied Burma on his mission, helping American Engineers build a "way for transports which landed later with the main body of air borne troops participating in the drive.

Natives Impressed

"If you think the natives were surprised when our gliders landed, you should have seen them when we opened up the mouth of one and drove out a jeep," Coogan laughed. "Two of them must have thought I was a god because they followed me everywhere and that night even made me a bed out of banana leaves."

Coogan carried six hand grenades just in case he might meet up with a few Japanese.

Climbing out of the transport which towed his glider back home, he said:

"I sure would like to hear from those British and Gurkha knife artists I took into Burma. * * * I would like to have gone with them when the column pushed toward its objective."

Gurkhas Stand By

"When we got over the valley in the moonlight, I told the troops I was going in. I went in fast and I thought we would never quit rolling, so I jumped out with some flare pots to light the way for the other gliders a few minutes behind me."

"I ran and ran, setting out the lights as I went. Everytime I lit a lamp I thought the Japs would open fire. Then I heard the whistle of the other gliders approaching, so I got out of the way and returned to my ship. Meanwhile the British troops had vanished into the jungle looking for Japs, but the Gurkhas stood with their knives drawn waiting to rush the enemy."

Coogan, who joined the Air Commandos in May, 1942, now is one of Col. Philip G. Cochran's glider pilots stationed at this base.

FLYING CADET AND PARENTS BURN TO DEATH

Pittsburgh, March 31 (AP)—A 17-year-old air force cadet reservist was burned to death with his parents Thursday after he dashed back into their flame and smoke-filled home in suburban Braddock in a vain rescue attempt.

He was Robert Exler, high school senior. He re-entered the home after other members of the family had fled when he learned his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Exler, Sr., had not escaped.

Party Leaders To Confer On Session

Harrisburg, March 31 (AP)—Governor Martin will hold a bi-partisan conference in his office at 2 p.m. Tuesday to discuss plans for a special legislative session, probably May 1, to make it easier for Pennsylvanians in the armed forces to vote. A formal call for the session has been delayed pending the conference.

State Republican and Democratic chairmen, and leaders of both parties in the General Assembly, as well as presiding officers, have been invited to attend the conference. Martin will present his special session plans and proposed changes in the soldier vote law in a move to limit the session to two weeks.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Charleroi, Pa., March 31 (AP)—Forty-one music clubs in 25 communities are registered for the annual Pittsburgh Junior Regional festival sponsored by the State Federation of Music clubs opening here today.

The Military Order of the Purple Heart was founded by George Washington in 1782.

Gauvreau Appointed Aide To Montgomery

Montreal, March 31 (AP)—Col. Guy Gauvreau has been appointed an aide to Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery in Britain and has been sent to Camberley Staff Military college. And his father, Vice President Romeo Gauvreau of the Montreal Royals, attributes it to his service as road secretary for the Montreal Baseball Club in 1936.

In his application for the position, the listing of "baseball road secretary" as Guy's former occupation caught the general's eye. Montgomery asked for details and the younger Gauvreau replied: "Arrange transportation, book hotels, sign up players, agree on salaries, fork out advance money, score the ball games and write pieces for newspapers."

Said the general: "You're my man."

GROWERS BOOST ACREAGE; HOPE FOR MORE HELP

Harrisburg, March 31 (AP)—Some Pennsylvania commercial vegetable growers are planning on increasing their acreage this year with the hope that there will be sufficient labor available when harvest time rolls around.

The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service declared that these good intentions of Spring "may not materialize" because the help situation is too uncertain.

The service added that while cabbage growers indicate they will plant slightly less acreage than they did a year ago:

"Some growers appear willing to gamble with the prospects" of obtaining enough harvest labor and intend to step up their planting acreage.

"The acreage of winter-planted spinach in the Bucks-Philadelphia area was reduced sharply compared to a year ago," the service asserted. "The winter-over crop is generally in only fair condition."

"However, a rather large increase in spring-planted spinach is anticipated in this area."

Clean-up Week

Miles Horst, secretary of agriculture, hopes that farmers in counties infested by the corn borer will be able to plow under all stubble and corn stalks by April 15.

Horst and Mrs. H. B. Eliason, chairman of the defense council's victory garden committee, have urged farmers and gardeners to observe April 10 to 15 as clean up week to destroy all borers hibernating in stubble, stalks and heavy-stemmed plants.

"Burrying the stubble at least six inches under ground will smother the live borers before they pupate and moths come out to lay eggs when the corn plants are well above ground," Horst declared. "Victory gardeners should shake and burn all plant refuse remaining on their plot by mid-April."

In addition to 27 counties where borers were found last fall in farm field corn stalks, the agriculture department has included four upper Susquehanna valley counties where cleanup work should be done in the lowlands along the river as far north as Wilkes-Barre. These counties are Snyder, Northumberland, Columbia and Montour.

Seek Plant For "Fuel From Coal"

Harrisburg, March 31 (AP)—Establishment in Pennsylvania of one or more Federal demonstration laboratories to make synthetic fuel from coal and other products is being sought by the State Commerce department. Secretary Floyd Chalfant disclosed Thursday.

A Federal measure appropriating $30,000,000 to set up such government-financed laboratories to make fuel from coal, shale and other substances is now before the Senate in Washington after a conference report was approved by the House.

"We are using every means to try to persuade the Federal government to set up one or more of the plants in this state," Chalfant said in an interview. "We think we have a good chance of succeeding." He added the legislation leaves the decision on the laboratories locations to the Bureau of Mines in the U.S. Department of Interior.

Quadruplets Born; Weight, 19 Pounds

New York, March 31 (AP)—The Zarief quadruplets bawled in juvenile four-part harmony today and doctors and nurses at Sloane hospital for women nodded agreement that they were feeling fine.

The children, born prematurely Wednesday to Mrs. Harry Zarief, 27, are New York's first quadruplets in years, possibly the first in its history.

Two of the girls weighed five pounds, one weighed four pounds and the boy four pounds, 13 ounces. They are being kept in an incubator. Hospital officials also reported that the mother was doing well today. The father is an assistant concert master with the Columbia Broadcasting system.

Dancing is the most ancient of all the arts, and was practised by almost all primitive tribes.

EXPECT BITTER FIGHTING OVER 4-F DRAFTING

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, March 31 (AP)—For the 4-Fs—worried or confused by all the talk about drafting them—here are some main points, plus some problems the government must solve:

First: The only purpose of such a draft would be to force 4-Fs into war essential jobs.

Second: It seems certain such a draft must come through special congressional legislation—not through a selective service order—because so many special problems are involved.

There are 3,600,000 men in 4-Fs between 18 and 38 found physically unfit for soldering—and of that number the war manpower commission says only one million are not in essential jobs.

Expect Fight

Therefore, it is that one million who would be affected.

Before congress okays a draft—if it ever does—a strong fight on the floor seems sure. Not all congressmen will agree such a draft would be effective. Even top government officials are in disagreement now.

The House Military subcommittee which this week investigated the problem, has recommended quick action by congress. It did not recommend immediate induction of 4-Fs.

It suggested, however, that the armed forces get to work immediately to have plans ready for handling 4-Fs, if congress approves their induction.

This is what the committee proposes congress enact into law:

The 4-Fs in essential jobs to remain free from the draft as long as they stay in those jobs. The rest would be called. Once inducted, if they were willing to take essential war jobs, they would be furloughed from the army. If they should refuse such jobs, they would be kept in army labor battalions.

Army Pay For Some

Those furloughed into civilian jobs, of course, would be paid the civilian salary, drawing no army pay. Those who preferred to stay in the labor battalions, would be given regular army pay.

Here the questions start:

Would those 1 million 4-Fs now in unessential jobs fill the manpower needs in war industries if they would take jobs there? Apparently so. The estimated manpower needs in industry by July 1 is 800,000.

How many of those 1 million 4-Fs are capable of going into other occupations? No one seems to know.

What is a war essential job? It differs from place to place. A 4-F cook in a town not pressed for manpower, would be non-essential. A 4-F cook in a war-busy town might be necessary. Therefore it seems likely the former would be drafted but not the latter.

Draft All 4-Fs

Rep. Costello (D-Cal.), Chairman of the House subcommittee, says the only "equitable" way to handle the problem would be to draft all unseasonably employed 4-Fs in the country, not just those where they are needed.

But suppose those inducted in Chicago were needed in Los Angeles and were willing to go there. Who'd pay their transportation? Costello thinks the government would, although special congressional action would be needed. But who'd pay their transportation back to Chicago after the war? The government? It pays discharged soldiers' way back home.

Would a drafted 4-F, furloughed into a shop where it was agreed workers had to join the union, have to join? Undersecretary of War Patterson says yes.

Nazi Control Of League Here Cited

Newark, N. J., March 31 (AP)—Testimony that the German-American Vocational league, one of the defendants in a federal court alien agent registration trial, was controlled from Germany was given Wednesday by Dr. Robert Kempner of Lansdowne, Pa., identified as a former German government official under the Hitler regime.

Dr. Kempner said the German labor front controlled the German Vocational league, which he declared was the parent body of the German-American Vocational league in this country.

"Only with the O.K. of the German Reich" could money be sent to the United States by the German labor front, he testified for the government.

A prosecution witness testified the day before the German labor front rebated $13,000 to the league here and that the money was used to finance its erstwhile Camp Bergwald at Bloomingdale, N. J.

SITUATION IN PALESTINE IS MORE RESTLESS

By JOHN F. CHESTER

Jerusalem, March 31 (AP)—The situation in Palestine on the eve of the expiration of the British white paper under which the difficult Jewish and Arab matters have been regulated since 1939 found both sides considerably although illegally armed today, with the picture spattered by recent sporadic outbreaks of violence and the outlook still admittedly tense.

Authorities remained outspokenly hopeful, however, that major clashes could be averted. A dusk curfew has been imposed and stringent laws carrying the death penalty for extreme terrorist activities have been reissued following last week's bomb-throwing incidents which cost the lives of nine policemen, of whom six were British.

Brooding Calm

While the brooding calm continued, the fiercest dust storms in 15 years raged across the Sinai desert, cutting off Palestine rail and road communications with Egypt. Only air travellers have been able to get through in the past two days.

Representatives of the leading Jewish organizations now are mapping plans to combat and isolate outlaw elements.

The 1939 white paper which expires tomorrow and which neither the Arabs nor Jews agreed to, provided that 75,000 Jewish immigrants might be admitted to Palestine up to March 31, 1944 with immigration prohibited thereafter except with the consent of the Palestine majority. This meant the consent of the Arabs, who now outnumber the Jews by two to one.

Immigration Slows

Jewish immigration has been slowed to a trickle by the war and the latest announcement in the British House of Commons said only slightly more than 47,000 had arrived since 1939. The announcement said another 28,000 would be admitted to fill the original quota as conditions permitted. This statement caused little open stir in the middle east.

However, in recent weeks outbreaks of violence have been more frequent. A number of policemen have been murdered in Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel Aviv. Bombs have been placed in immigration offices and police stations, causing some deaths in the latter. Palestine authorities claim these are due almost if not entirely to Jewish extremist groups and that the Arabs have been ostentatiously refraining from terrorist activity in the hope of improving their case.

SCOLA SLAYING BREAKS "BLACK MART" GANGS

Camden, N. J., March 31 (AP)—Two "black market" gasoline gangs in northern and southern New Jersey will be smashed with information obtained in an investigation of the gang slaying of Vincent (China) Scola, Camden police character, Det. Capt. Gustave Koerner said today.

Koerner asserted the groups had "flooded" both regions with counterfeit and stolen coupons. Stamps worth half a million gallons already have been recovered, he added. He declined to say where, but declared that some were stolen in Reading, Pa., and some in New York state.

The Camden county detective also knew he who shot Scola as he drove his $2,000 limousine homeward here early Wednesday morning.

AIR COMMANDOS CARRIED JEEPS IN GLIDERS TO BURMA JUNGLES

By FRANK L. MARTIN
Headquarters of the American Air
Commando Force, the India-Burma
Border, March 26 (Delayed) (AP) —

Flight Officer Jackie Coogan of the American Air Commandos, first glider pilot to land Allied troops behind the Japanese lines in Burma, came back to his base today to relate how he was "taken for a god" by native Burmese when they saw him on their paddy fields.

Coogan expressed his disappointment over missing an encounter with the enemy.

The former film star, tired and dusty, spent four days in Japanese-occupied Burma on his mission, helping American Engineers build a runway for transports which landed later with the main body of air troops participating in the drive.

Natives Impressed

"If you think the natives were surprised when our gliders landed, you should have seen them when we opened up the mouth of one and drove out a jeep," Coogan laughed.
"Two of them must have thought I was a god because they followed me everywhere and that night even made me a bed out of banana leaves."

Coogan carried six hand grenades just in case he might meet up with a few Japanese.

Climbing out of the transport which towed his glider back home, he said:

"I sure would like to hear from those British and Gurkha knife artists I took into Burma. * * * I would like to have gone with them when the column pushed toward its objective."

Pittsburgh, March 31 (AP) — A 17-year-old air force cadet reservist was burned to death with his parents Thursday after he had dashed back home in suburban Braddock in a vain rescue attempt.

He was Robert Exler, high school

Exler, Sr., had not escaped.

Three firemen were slightly in-smoke, but was rescued, as flames quickly spread throughout the three-story frame house. Fisher was pulled from the building by Mary Elizabeth Exler, 21, and Andrew

Andrew, Jr., previously had brought his wife and two-months-old daughter to safety.

Many Elizabeth said she had tried to lead her parents to safety, but lost them when she stumbled in the

BANYAN TREE IS COSTLY BASTION
FOR JAPANESE

Hill 260, Bougainville, Solomon Islands, March 25 (Delayed) (AP)—This is the story of a tree, probably the highest-priced tree in the world.

This tree was a banyan, rising 125 feet above the very edge of a cliff which drops 260 feet almost straight down to the Tokorina riverbed. It overlooked half-mile-wide Tokorina valley—and Japanese positions on jungled hills across the river.

Americans built an observation post in the top of this tree.

The night of March 9 Japanese crawled up the steep cliff, captured the tree and by dawn had dug in. They "tunneled like moles," said Maj. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of the 37th Division. "It's funny,"—but the general didn't mean humorous—"our boys have been trying for 17 days to recapture that tree."

Several Americans were killed and others wounded in futile attempts to take it. It is only 20 yards from American lines.

"They tried everything," General Hodge continued. "Flamethrowers had no effect. They tried mortars and bazookas. They finally sprayed the tree with gasoline and fired it. Japanese ammunition at the tree base exploded but the Nips still were there.

Used Torpedoes

"Then gasoline burned the inside of the tree and it fell."

"Actually the charred half-shell of the tree trunk still stuck up 30 feet, affording a protective screen for enemy riflemen and machinegunners. The Japanese once had four machineguns there but at least three were knocked out."

"One Nip remained," the general added. "He had a rifle. This morning a flame-thrower got him. This afternoon we're blowing it up with bangalore torpedoes to make sure the Japs don't come back."

A week ago, two platoons led by Lt. Benton Hammond of Meadville, Pa., and Second Lt. Richard L. Roy of Mt. Lake Park, Md., attempted a flanking movement. They surprised and killed 22 Japanese in pillboxes built into the cliff. The Americans had to withdraw, however, before reaching the tunnels. That try cost three lives and one wounded. A later similar move also failed.

Story Unfinished

Hill 260 is several hundred yards ahead of the U. S. defense perimeter on Bougainville. It is reached by a narrow, winding trail which in some places goes almost straight up the hillside. It is an important outpost guarding the Tokorina defense perimeter.

If the Japanese had it they could set up guns to shell our frontlines.

But the story of the tree is unfinished. Every Japanese in the tunnels beneath it had been killed or driven out, but some probably slipped back during the night.

No one knows how many lives that tree cost the Japanese. Through binoculars seven bodies are visible near it. Undoubtedly it is one of the war's highest-priced.

RED CROSS WAR DRIVE NEAR END; $4,000 NEEDED

With only a little over a day to go before the close of the drive Friday, the Adams county Red Cross was within $4,185.55 of its goal of $26,500 for the annual War Relief campaign. The Rev. Kenneth D. James, Littlestown chairman, turned over $3,218.33 to the county Red Cross Wednesday afternoon and reported that "about $100 additional" could be expected from the Littlestown area. The amount brought to $3,282.33 the total turned in from Littlestown. Last year the amount collected in Littlestown was $2,405.62.

The Right Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, chairman of the McSherrystown area turned in $120 additional Wednesday, bringing to $1,262.50 the contributions so far from that area. Included in the McSherrystown sum was $100 from F. X. Smith Sons company.

Ask Second Gifts

Additional contributions by those who have already given, donations by those who have not as yet been solicited and a number of outstanding amounts may bring the county to its quota by Saturday. It was felt today. No report has been made as yet from East Berlin and from theater collections being taken this week which may bring in from $800 to $1,000, theater managers estimated.

Among the larger gifts from Littlestown were: Windsor Shoe Company, $300; Windsor Shoe employees, $200; Blue Ridge Rubber company, $200; Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns and Sunday schools $136; Littlestown Hardware and Foundry $100; Keystone Cabinet company, $50; Lions-club, $55; St. Paul's-Lutheran church, $93.65; Redeemer Evangelical Reformed, $39; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shoemaker, I. H. Crouse and sons, W. R. Dern, B. F. Shriver Company, Eagles, Q. D. Robert and Walter F. Crouse, all $25; William D. Snerner and Walter Crouse, $20; Strouse-Baer sewing factory, 15.50; Rotary, $15; Keystone Milling company, $15; J. D. Little and Son, $15; Methodist church $14; Woman's Community club, $10; Jones-Littlestown Clothing company, $10 and Littonian Shoe company, $10.

Of the amounts turned in by the Gettysburg area $230 was presented by the students of Gettysburg high school as the receipts from the show, "Footloose" presented last Thursday and Friday evenings.

The Willing Workers Sunday school class of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Bendersville, turned in $77.85 and the Adams County Nursery and Fruit farms, owned by H. G. Baugher gave $25.

Mrs. J. E. Musselman was another $25 donor and the Friends Grove Church of the Brethren Sunday school class gave $14.56.

Charge To Follow Car-Truck Crash

George A. Shoemaker, Jr., Chambersburg, will be charged before an Idaville justice of the peace with leaving a parked position in the path of oncoming traffic as a result of an accident Wednesday at 9:30 o'clock in Idaville, Pvt. George Evanko, of the local state police, said.

Private Evanko will lay the charge which resulted from a collision between a truck driven by Shoemaker and owned by Bruce N. Stevens, Chambersburg, and a car driven by R. C. Prowell, Biglerville. Shoemaker had delivered soft drinks at an Idaville store and pulled across the highway to enter the Idaville-York Springs road, when he struck the Prowell vehicle, it was stated at his home because of the serious illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. King, brother and sister-in-law of the bride were the attendants.

Rose Crepe Bridal Dress

Mrs. Frank W. Cowles, organist, played "At Dawning" by Cadman and for the procession she played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin by Wagner and for the recessional she played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride wore a rose pebble crepe dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Her matron of honor wore aqua crepe with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. King.

The bride graduated from the Frostproof high school and the Southern School of Commerce, at Orlando, Florida. She had been secretary to the Commanding Officer of the 95th Sub-depot at Hennidiicks Field, Seabrook, Florida.

The bride had gone to Hanover to pick up several persons to drive to work in Littlestown.

From the witness stand Thursday night Sanders testified he was travelling about 20 miles an hour. He said that Mr. Williams was dressed in dark clothing and that he did not see him until he was only several feet away. He said he stopped within a car's length of where he had hit the man.

Sanders had gone to Hanover to work in Littlestown.

The newlyweds arrived in Gettysburg last Friday evening for a week's visit with the bridegroom's parents.

JOSEPH BUSHEY TO JOIN NAVY

Pvt. Joseph Francis Bushey, Fairfield road, will report Friday at the Bainbridge Naval Training school, Bainbridge, Maryland, where he will become a petty officer, first class, on Naval Shore Patrol duty.

A member of the Pennsylvania Motor Police for almost 15 years, he is on leave of absence from the state police until victory. Following his training at Bainbridge he will be given further training in the Fifth Naval district.

Married and the father of five children, Mr. Bushey is a graduate of the Swanton, New York high school; St. Anne's Academy, Swanton, and St. Michael's college, Wynoosky Park, New York. He was first stationed at the local state police barracks about ten years ago and has made his home here ever since. While here he was attached to the criminal investigation division.

The jury consisted of Elwood R. Hinkle, Earl Thomas, Roscoe Rider, Charles Rabenstine, Myrtis Mumford and Calvin Witmer.

Mr. Cromwell has volunteered for duty in the Navy and both he and Mr. Davis, who is being inducted, have received orders to report for Navy duty next Monday. Davis has two children and Cromwell one son.

When Mr. Cromwell locks up his shop Wednesday evening it will mark the end of a 50-year period during which a barber shop has been operated in those rooms. Mr. Cromwell, who has been a barber for nearly 22 years, began work in this shop 18 years ago Sunday. He worked four years previously in Chambersburg. Five years ago he bought the shop from Charles "Shorty" Barbemann, who now resides in Baltimore and who ran the Gettysburg shop for 44 years. Cromwell well worked for Barbemann for 13 years.

The fire originated in the boiler room, a one-story frame structure built between the dairy building, a two-story frame structure, and the garage, which was of concrete block construction.

The fire was discovered at about 10 o'clock by Charles and Allen Herr, sons of Elmer J. Herr, who lease the dairy from their father and operate it. The interior of the boiler house was a mass of flames when they discovered the conflagration.

The McSherrystown firemen were summoned.

Former County Teacher Tells Of Red Cross Club Overseas

By ELEANOR ADAMS

G. I.'s who spurned Shakespeare in the classroom, have discovered that he was quite a fellow in his native Stratford-on-Avon, England, Ida Katharine Hall, former East Berlin school teacher, reports on her arrival from the British Isles.

Miss Hall, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hall of Lancaster, served as an American Red Cross camp club director in England for eight months. She is visiting from her parents while recovering from an illness, before assignment to another war theatre.

The American Red Cross White Swan club, where Miss Hall served for several months, is the mainstay of that name centering around the Bard of Avon's birthplace. The inn was over one hundred years old in Shakespeare's time—in fact he "modernized" it completely. It is so steeped in Shakespearean memorabilia and tradition, that the most disinterested Yank has caught the spell, and now speaks quite possessively of the cottage "where Willie wooed Ann."

Popular Club

The White Swan Red Cross club has become one of the most popular in England for American servicemen. Those on furlough, as well as men stationed nearby, visit the historic town.

"Some come because they are curious, some because they secretly want to learn more about Shakespeare's life and times. Others are earnest scholars and devotees," says Miss Hall.

Impromptu tours of all Stratford-on-Avon are arranged for visiting Yanks who wish them. Sometimes the guide is the Shakespearean actor George Hannan-Clark, famous in the American theatre. The boys visit Shakespeare's birthplace as well as the remains of the house in which he wrote "The Tempest," his last play; the Shakespearean theatre, Ann Hathaway's cottage, Collegiate Church of Holy Trinity where Shakespeare is buried, and the famous "wishing well." Modern legend has it that the Yanks all wish for the same thing there, "Home by Christmas."

Provides Amusements

Ponting on the river Avon—with emergency fatigue clothes ready for those who fall in—horseback riding, golf, tennis, and the White Swan Yankee softball team, are other attractions instituted by Miss Hall at

SGT. REDDING WAR PRISONER IN NAZI CAMP

S-Sgt. Richard M. Redding, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Redding, Gettysburg, is the third Adams county youth to be a prisoner of war in a Nazi camp "somewhere in Germany."

Redding was captured by police Sunday in a cabin along the Lincoln highway, east of Gap.

Keleman is said to have admitted to police having robbed the Gettysburg shop along with a number of other robbers in this area. He is still being questioned in regard to other robberies which police suspect may have been performed by him and his wife, Natalie, who was arrested at the same time.

Sgt. Albert B. Verbecken said the pair, who have been married only 10 months, admitted they stole the automobile of J. Frank Slike, Harrisburg cigar dealer who reported his car, with 15,000 cigars, was stolen February 28. The cigars were valued at $700.

About 5,000 of the cigars were recovered Monday night from their hiding place in a stolen car in a garage the pair had rented in Lemoyne, Verbecken said. The car, property of Walter Markley, of Marietta, was stolen February 16.

Three automobile tires, said to have been stolen from King's Garage, Washington township, York county, were included among the loot recovered by police. Several batteries, also taken from the garage, were found.

The pair admitted they robbed Dale's tire shop near Gettysburg and twice robbed Steepe's Dry Cleaning company in Penbrook. Police said many articles, taken from the dry cleaning establishment, were recovered.

Harrisburg Detective John E. Abrams also is conducting an investigation into the activities of the pair in connection with several other un-solved robberies committed in Harrisburg.

Keleman, an Army private, who was reported to have been absent from Camp Edwards, Mass., since last January 7, was sought by military police.

A keen-eyed state trooper, Pvt. Leonard A. Mazakas, of the Lancaster substation, while on patrol in the Lincoln highway Sunday afternoon noticed a woman fitting the description of the one suspect playing with a dog in front of some cabins, 11 miles east of Lancaster.

Mazakas radioed the Harrisburg barracks and two other policemen were sent to the scene. The pair surrendered peacefully to three officers.

Biglerville Girl Cured By New Drug Here

Miss Edith Miller, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Biglerville R. 2, was discharged from the Warner hospital Saturday afternoon after recovering from a blood stream infection that up to a year ago would in all probability have proved fatal.

MANY TO FILE DECLARATIONS OF YEAR'S TAX

Walter J. Rothensies, collector of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia, announced today that copies of the forms for 1944 declarations of estimated tax have been mailed to those taxpayers who filed 1943 declarations in this district last fall.

Collector Rothensies said any other taxpayers who are required to file declarations this year may obtain them from the Office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia.

The 1944 declarations are due not later than April 15. Originally scheduled to be filed on March 15 along with 1943 tax returns, the 1944 declarations were postponed until April 15 in order to include provisions of the recently-enacted Revenue Act of 1943.

Keep Paid Up

The purpose of these declarations, Collector Rothensies explained, is to keep everyone substantially paid up on his income taxes under the pay-as-you-go plan. Most taxpayers are kept approximately paid up by the tax that is withheld from their wages, and therefore do not have to file declarations.

However, some wage earners—particularly clergymen, domestic servants and farm laborers—do not pay any withholding tax, and are required to file declarations. Other wage earners pay withholding tax but not enough to meet their total tax bill and must therefore file declarations.

Also, declarations are required to provide a pay-as-you-go method of collecting taxes from business and professional persons and large numbers of others who get all or part of their income from sources where no tax is withheld, such as business profits, dividends, interest, rents, property or stock transactions, or annuities.

A declaration is required on or before April 15 from all citizens or residents of the United States who expect to have during 1944 either alone or together with a wife or husband.

1. Wages subject to withholding exceeding $2,700 for a single person or $3,500 for a married couple living together.

2. Or, more than $100 income from all other sources if the total of such income plus wages subject to withholding is (a) $500 or more for a single person, or (b) more than $624 for a married person, or (c) $1,200 or more for a married couple living together.

The first quarterly instalment of estimated tax shown to be due on the declaration should be made at the time the declaration is filed and the remainder should be paid on or December 15.

Farmers, who receive more than 80 per cent of their income from farming, may, if they desire, postpone the filing of declarations until December 15. However, if they do wait until December 15, the entire amount of the estimated tax must be paid at that time.

Kathy Hall remembers the day one young flight sergeant from New York was promoted. After the ceremony, he edged timidly toward her with a bouquet of flowers. "Would you mind very much seeing my mother for today?—If she were here, I'd give her these." Kathy thanked and congratulated him, and they talked awhile before she was called away. But he ran after her—"if my mother were ready here, she'd kiss me today."

Every Yank was permitted to bring one friend in the allied forces, as his guest to the club. Square dancing was taught, and frequent dances were staged for the men. The girls on these occasions were young actresses from the Shakespearean theatre, civilian government workers and girls in the ATS and WAAF.

MINUTEMEN REORGANIZE TO OFFSET DRAFT

With 30 men already called into the armed forces, the Adams county Minutemen were reorganized at a meeting Friday evening at the armory with new non-commissioned officers named to fill the ranks of those called into the service.

The company, under the command of Capt. C. Arthur Brame, at one time numbered 110 men, now has been reduced to 60 men and four officers. Besides the 30 called to the U. S. Army, Navy and Marines, ten of the members are now engaged in night war work and are unable to be active and 10 have resigned since the organization of the group over a year ago.

Despite the reduction in size, the company plans to carry out its spring maneuvers this spring with the members visiting all communities of the county in order to become familiar with the terrain. The maneuvers will start in May. During April only two meetings will be held, Captain Brame announced today, with the company drilling on April 14 and 28. In May, it will start regular weekly meetings.

The non-commissioned officers include: Amide Ecker, Littlestown, first sergeant; George Bushman and George Coshun, Gettysburg, platoon sergeants; Chester Shriver, Jr., Gettysburg R. D.; David Alwine, New Oxford; Daniel Miller, Gettysburg; Harry McDowell, Biglerville R. D., and Henry Small, Cashtown, staff sergeants.

New sergeants named Friday include: A. P. Markle, New Oxford; Louis Chamberlain, Gettysburg; Amos Kuhn, Abbottstown; Curtis Searfoss, Cashtown, and Clarence Deardorff, McKnightstown.

Cpl. Crosby Hartzell was named company clerk to take the place of Cpl. Paul Fox, who will be inducted into the U. S. Army in April.

Republicans Gain On Voting Rolls

Eighty-four Republicans and 24 Democratic voters have registered during the period from the close of the county's registration books last October prior to the general election in November until the close of the books Saturday at noon prior to the forthcoming primaries in April.

No record was kept of the number of persons changing party affiliations, clerks of the county election commission said, although they estimated the changes as "four to one to Republican." Sixteen Republicans and three Democrats registered Saturday morning before the closing of the registration period.

Surviving are his widow, the former Bertha D. Mickley, to whom he was married in 1909; one son, Herbert William, Gettysburg R. 2; a foster daughter, Laurette Carson, at home; four sisters. Mrs. Annie Adelsberger, Fairfield R. 2; Mrs. Sarah Brown, Harrisburg, and Mrs. Lida Carbaugh, Gettysburg; five brothers, George, Chambersburg; Oliver, Littlestown; Norman, Fairfield, and Charles and Frank, Gettysburg R. 2.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon, meeting at the home at 1:30 o'clock with rites at St. John's Reformed church, Fairfield, at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. John H. Ehrlhart. Interment in Flory's cemetery.

Friends may call at the late home Wednesday evening.

Quarantine Homes For Scarlet Fever

County Health Officer William I. Shields Friday quarantined two county homes where children are ill with scarlet fever.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boen, Butler township, Biglerville R. 2, three children, Leroy, 12; Betty, eight, and Nancy, two, are ill.

The young man entered the armed forces on August 16, 1942. He was graduated from the gunnery school at Harlingen, Texas, seven weeks later. Before going overseas, S. Sgt. Wolfe was stationed at Fort Myers, Avlon Park and Creswell in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hartman, Gettysburg R. 1, announce the birth of an eight-pound daughter, Connie Minerva, March 21. They have three other children, two boys and a girl.

HONOR GROWERS FOR BIG TOMATO YIELDS IN 1943

Charles Smith, York Springs R. 2, and Elmer Hikes, Gardner R. 1, were honored as being the largest producers of all tomato growers selling to the Adams Apple corporation, Aspers, at the annual tomato growers' banquet held by the Adams Apple company at the Aspers fire hall Thursday evening.

Mr. Smith produced an average of 18.31 tons of tomatoes per acre to lead the entire group while Mr. Hikes produced 15.82 tons per acre.

Fred Yost, York Springs, was announced as leader in the amount of U. S. No. 1's turned in to the plant with 90.7 per cent of the tomatoes he sold to the Adams Apple company to be U. S. No. 1's. Herbert Miller, Biglerville, was second with an average of 87.91 per cent U. S. No. 1's.

All four of the leaders were presented with 3,000 tomato plants, sufficient for an acre's planting.

J. M. Huffington, State College specialist, and M. T. Hartman, county agent, were speakers at the annual dinner. Mr. Huffington outlined the following program for maximum production of tomatoes: crop rotation, use of sod or manure, use of enough lime, plow deeply in April and fertilize deeply in April or early May using 750 pounds broadcast, followed by 250 pounds along the rows at setting time. Set the plants in the middle of May and set deep and as quickly as possible after pulling. Have the rows spaced four to five feet apart and plant closely enough together to put 3,000 plants in an acre. Cultivate to keep ahead of the weeds but not deeply enough to cut the roots. Train and supervise pickers so that they will pick at least 60 per cent U. S. No. 1's.

Mr. Huffington then called on Mr. Smith, Mr. Hikes, Harold Davis, York Springs R. 1; Ralph Davis, York Springs; William Leer, York Spring R. 1; Gilbert Miller, York Springs R. 2; Herbert Miller, Biglerville; Ray Showers, Biglerville R. 1, and Charles Spertzel, York Springs R. 1, all growers with ten or more tons average per acre to outline their methods of planting and caring for tomatoes.

Mr. Hartman urged the growers to rely to a great extent on their own abilities to handle the harvest this year and if they need help to call as soon as possible to the county Emergency Farm Labor office which will be opened in the near future, to outline their needs. The labor situation will be extremely critical this coming summer and fall, he said.

MANY TO FILE DECLARATIONS OF YEAR'S TAX

Walter J. Rothenses, collector of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia, announced today that copies of the forms for 1944 declarations of estimated tax have been mailed to those taxpayers who filed 1943 declarations in this district last fall.

Collector Rothenses said any other taxpayers who are required to file declarations this year may obtain them from the Office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia.

The 1944 declarations are due not later than April 15. Originally scheduled to be filed on March 15 along with 1943 tax returns, the 1944 declarations were postponed until April 15 in order to include provisions of the recently-enacted Revenue Act of 1943.

Farmers, who receive more than 80 per cent of their income from farming, may, if they desire, postpone the filing of declarations until December 15. However, if they do wait until December 15, the entire amount of the estimated tax must be paid at that time.

Mr. Smith produced an average of 18.31 tons of tomatoes per acre to lead the entire group while Mr. Hikes produced 15.82 tons per acre.

Fred Yost, York Springs, was announced as leader in the amount of U. S. No. 1's turned in to the plant with 90.7 per cent of the tomatoes he sold to the Adams Apple company found to be U. S. No. 1's. Herbert Miller, Bigerville, was second with an average of 87.91 per cent U. S. No. 1's.

All four of the leaders were presented with 3,000 tomato plants, sufficient for an acre's planting.

J. M. Huffington, State College specialist, and M. T. Hartman, county agent, were speakers at the annual dinner. Mr. Huffington outlined the following program for maximum production of tomatoes: crop rotation, use of sod or manure, use of enough lime, plow deeply in April and fertilize deeply in April or early May using 750 pounds broadcast, followed by 250 pounds along the rows at setting time. Set the plants in the middle of May and set deep and as quickly as possible after pulling. Have the rows spaced four to five feet apart and plant closely enough together to put 3,000 plants in an acre. Cultivate to keep ahead of the weeds but not deeply enough to cut the roots. Train and supervise pickers so that they will pick at least 60 per cent U. S. No. 1's.

Mr. Huffington then called on Mr. Smith, Mr. Hikes, Harold Davis, York Springs R. 1; Ralph Davis, York Springs; William Leer, York Spring R. 1; Gilbert Miller, York Springs R. 2; Herbert Miller, Bigerville; Ray Showers, Bigerville R. 1, and Charles Spertzel, York Springs R. 1, all growers with ten or more tons average per acre to outline their methods of planting and caring for tomatoes.

Mr. Hartman urged the growers to rely to a great extent on their own abilities to handle the harvest this year and if they help to call as soon as possible to the county Emergency Farm Labor office which will be opened in the near future, to outline their needs. The labor situation will be extremely critical this coming summer and fall, he said.

Despite the reduction in size, the company plans to carry out its spring maneuvers this spring with the members visiting all communities of the county in order to become familiar with the terrain. The maneuvers will start in May.

During April only two meetings will be held, Captain Braine announced today, with the company drilling on April 14 and 28. In May, it will start regular weekly meetings.

The many Americans in the Canadian forces particularly welcomed the white Swan club, and the first American girls they had seen since enlisting in 1939.

Permit One Guest

Kathy Hall remembers the day one young flight sergeant from New York was promoted. After the ceremony, he edged timidly toward her with a bouquet of flowers. "Would you mind very much being my mother for today?" If she were here, I'd give her these." Kathy thanked and congratulated him, and they talked awhile before she was called away. But he ran after her—"If my mother were really here, she'd kiss me today!"

Every Yank was permitted to bring one friend in the Allied forces as his guest to the club. Square dancing was taught, and frequent dances were staged for the men. The girls on these occasions were young actresses from the Shakespearean theatre, civilian government workers, and girls in the ATS and WAAF.

Frances G. Kinnear of New York city, was director at White Swan club, with Virginia Ekins of Salt Lake City, Utah, as assistant club director. At the camp club, Sylvia Risman of Buffalo, N. Y., was staff aide. It was her idea to have the club's one blank wall done into the vivid "hands across the sea" mural by Sgt. Holtzclaw, of Texas.

Turn To Red Cross

"In England," states Miss Hall, "the American Red Cross camp clubs and the leave area clubs are the answers to every welfare problem of the American G. I. In that congested country, the American servicemen naturally turns to the Red Cross for meals, a bed on leave, and his entertainment. And every Red Cross worker considers it the highest tribute when a Yankee

Honor Growers For Big Tomato Yields in 1943

Charles Smith, York Springs R. 2, and Elmer Hikes, Gardners R. 1, were honored as being the largest producers of all tomato growers selling to the Adams Apple corporation, Aspers, at the annual tomato growers' banquet held by the Adams Apple company at the Aspers fire hall Thursday evening.

Mr. Smith produced an average of 18.31 tons of tomatoes per acre to lead the entire group while Mr. Hikes produced 15.82 tons per acre.

At the same service two adults and six children were baptized. The adults were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Geiman. The children baptized were: John David King, Linda Mae Geiman, Burnell Curtis Plank, Ruthetta Mae Plank, Jean Louise Plank and Harold William Plank.

Promoted

Robert G. Livesay, 210 West Broadway, Gettysburg, has been promoted from the rank of second to first lieutenant at Love Field, Texas, headquarters for the Fifth Ferrying Group, Ferrying Division of the Air Transport Command, according to an announcement by his commanding officer, Lt. Col. Russell W. Munson.

Born at Mt. Clare, West Virginia, 1st Lt. Livesay graduated from Gettysburg high school and attended Gettysburg college prior to entering military service January 14, 1942.

He is a flying officer assigned to duty with one of the ferrying squadrons at the Ferrying Division's Texas air base.

Lieutenant Livesay is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin R. Bigham, West Broadway.

HAZLETON NIPS LOWER MERION; DUQUESNE WINS

Philadelphia, (AP) — Hazelton's Mountaineers did it.

Playing with the vengeance of long years of futile effort, flashing coordination and speed that amazed even avid college and pro fans, fielding a star—Carl "Red" Meinhold—who some experts called the best seen in action here this year, Coach Hughie McGehee's Hazleton high basketers Tuesday night ended Lower Merion's three-year reign over PIAA basketball.

The upstarts crushed Lower Merion, 59-31, before a shouting, cheering crowd of 9,200 in Convention Hall and thus won the right to meet Duquesne high on the same court Saturday night for the PIAA title. While Hazleton was winning the eastern regional final, Duquesne stopped Sharon, 37-25. In Pitt stadium, Pittsburgh, for the western crown.

Aces Outclassed

At the opening whistle, Hazleton unleashed a hurricane assault that set the Main Liners on their heels and kept them there to the end. The Mountaineers limited Lower Merion to a single field goal in each of the first two periods while running up leads of 15-6 and 32-12. The lead skyrocketed to 45-17 at the end of the third quarter, each team scored 14 in the final.

Meinhold, a 6 foot 4 center with an uncanny eye, scored 25 points, only two short of the Convention Hall schoolboy record of Francis Henkel, Southeast Catholic, Philadelphia. He received a minor knee injury late in the game and had to quit, and only then were the players on team ever terms.

Meinholt's teammate, husky Al Degatis, who rolled up 15 points, scored three field goals in the first two or three minutes to start Lower Merion toward its first defeat in 61 PIAA league and playoff games over a four-year period.

Records Fall

It was the first time in eight years that Lower Merion had lost the eastern final. It was the highest score ever chalked up against a Lower Merion team, and it was the first time more than 50 points had been tallied against an aggregation coached by the Main Liners' cagewise Bill Anderson.

Hazleton did what no team had been able to accomplish since Lebanon turned the trick in 1940. And the triumph gave the team an opportunity to equal Lower Merion's four state championships, the Mountaineers having won in 1928, 1929 and 1938.

Hank Belber and Stan Peacock led the Maroons' weak-kneed attack with 10 and nine points respectively, but neither compared with Meinhold, who registered nine field goals and seven fouls on four attempts. Philadelphia writers said the rangy red-head ranked with the finest schoolboy players in the state's history.

SWING SHIFT TO AID CARDS

By OSCAR KAHLAN

Cairo, Ill., March 30 (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals has a "swing shift" squad to help solve the player shortage.

Several Cards can be transferred from one position to another in the event the service calls or injuries open gaps in the regular lineup.

Veterans Debs Garms and Pepper Martin are listed as outfielders but both have played third. Garms took turns at third and outfield with 10 and nine points respectively, but neither compared with Meinhold, who registered nine field goals and seven fouls on four attempts. Philadelphia writers said the rangy red-head ranked with the finest schoolboy players in the state's history.

Johnny Hopp is coming up for pre-induction examination, but if he still is around the Cardinals will have an experienced outfielder and also a substitute for first-baseman Ray Sanders.

If he is inducted, Southworth will prep second-baseman Emil Verban as Sanders' understudy. Verban played 49 games at first base for Houston of the Texas league in 1942, handling 336 chances with nine errors.

Most versatile Cardinal is a rookie from Sacramento, Mickey Burnett, outfielder and infielder.

New York, March 28 (AP)—Early odds today established Beau Jack a 4 to 3 betting favorite over Juan Zurita, the NBA lightweight boxing champion, in their non-title 10-round fight at Madison Square Garden Friday.

Philadelphia, March 28 (AP)—Tom Miller, 25-year-old end of the Philadelphia Eagles, has been rejected for military service because of a stomach ailment, bringing to 14 the number of 4-F Eagles available for the 1944 National League football campaign.

Chicago, March 28 (AP)—The spring version of bowling's richest individual event, the Petersen classic, will be held in Cleveland April 29 through May 7.

The tourney, open to bowlers having an average of 180 or better, will be limited to 800, competing for 190 prizes totaling $20,000 with a top award of $3,000.

Wilson Opens 75th Anniversary Fete

Wilson college at Chambersburg began the celebration last Friday night of the seventy-fifth anniversary of its chartering. A dinner for faculty and students opened a series of anniversary events that will continue until commencement.

"The American woman's responsibility toward the nation and the world" is the theme of the two-month celebration. In weekly convocations guest speakers will discuss the part American women in general and American college women in particular should take in solving problems ranging from juvenile delinquency to international reconstruction.

Wilson received its charter from the Legislature of Pennsylvania seventy-five years ago, March 24, 1869, and admitted its first students October 12, 1870. It is the oldest college for women in Pennsylvania and one of the oldest in the nation.

FRICK CLAIMS GYM TRAINING HAS BENEFITS

New York, New York (AP)—While major league managers are moaning "who said ball teams never will train in the south again?" President Ford Frick of the National league can find a little sunshine in the clouds.

Stopping off in a snowstorm at Muncie, Ind., to visit the Pittsburgh Pirates, Frick pointed out that all clubs were suffering equally from bad weather.

"The players are deriving certain physical benefits by holding indoor exercises and hoping for a streak of sunshine," he commented. "I realize, however, it's impossible to judge by what the athletes do in the gym just how they will stack up in actual baseball conditions."

Pirate Manager Frankie Frisch canceled today's scheduled exhibition with the Freeman Field team and the team prepared to head for Louisville, Ky., for a day of practice before week-end exhibitions against the Chicago White Sox.

News from other big league camps:

Yanks Seek Aid

New York Yankees—George Weiss, Yanks' farm system boss, was due to visit camp Thursday. But instead of seeking prospects for minor league clubs his conference with Manager Joe McCarthy concerned mostly adding strength to the Yanks.

Boston Braves—After watching Nate Andrews pitch for batting practice, Manager Bob Coleman concluded he's due to be a 20-game winner.

Boston Red Sox—with seven absences, Joe Cronin was concerned about two, Oscar Judd from Canada and Tom McBride from Little Rock, Ark. Others believed delayed travel difficulties from west coast.

Chicago Cubs—Pitcher Paul Derringer, nursing a sprained ankle, has taken a few short turns on mound during batting practice and may be ready to face Detroit Saturday or Sunday.

Cleveland Indians—Manager Lou Boudreau's decision to go home because of his daughter's sickness started rumors that he had been called by his draft board. Lou denied them.

Chicago White Sox—Jimmy Dykes named Thornton Lee, Bill Dietrich and Orville Grove to pitch Saturday's exhibition against Pittsburgh.

Luby Missing

New York Giants—Whereabouts of infielder Hugh Luby, who hasn't been heard from since he was supposed to have left San Francisco March 23, provided a rainy-day puzzle.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Holdout Augie Galan was expected in camp today, but Dodgers had no word of unsigned pitcher Les Webber, who started from California last week or of Arkie Vaughan.

Cincinnati Reds—Manager Bill McKechnie says Rookie Southpaw Arnold Carter, up from Syracuse, could be a big help now that Johnny Vander Meer is gone, though "his curve doesn't explode like Vandy's."

St. Louis Cards—Billy Southworth ordered longer workouts and full nine-inning games at every opportunity to make up for curtailed training.

Bobo Unreported

St. Louis Browns—Brown's prospects improving despite having only one outdoor workout. Eleven pitchers on hand and only one man on the hospital list.

Philadelphia Athletics—Connie Mack is wondering what has become of Bob Newsom, who hasn't been heard from since training camp opened.

Detroit Tigers—Ralph Slewert, 6-foot 11-inch batting practice pitcher, was optioned to Memphis of Southern Association.

Sacramento, Calif., March 28 (AP)—Ty Cobb, Detroit's famed hitter and base runner of a generation ago, will be the lead-off batter for the Pacific Coast league this year.

LOU NOVIKOFF MISSING FROM CHICAGO CAMP

By TED MEIER
New York, (AP)—Lou Novikoff, the "Mad Russian," apparently is up to his old trick of giving the Chicago Cubs the headache.

The slugging outfielder is among the absentees from the Bruins' spring camp at French Lick, Ind.

Just as a year ago when Lou stayed away until after the season opened, rumors involving a Novikoff trade have started. Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is reported trying to talk Wilson into a swap for the outfielder. Meantime the Cubs learned that pitcher Lon Warneke and outfielder Charlie Gilbert had passed their pre-induction physical exams and that slugger Jimmy Fox is well on report Saturday to start his comeback.

The Chicago White Sox, also training at French Lick, were told by Johnny Humphries, one of their best pitchers, that he has been reclassified 1-A by his New Orleans draft board. Outfielder Thurman Tucker said he wasn't included in the group called up for service by April 11 and hence expected to be around to play a few games for the Sox.

News from other big league camps:

Javery Cuts Loose

St. Louis Browns—Catcher Joe Schulz was ordered confined to hotel with sore throat.

Boston Braves—Pitcher Al Javery, the equivalent of three full games cut loose for first time. He pitched during batting practice.

Boston Red Sox—Outfielder Leon Culberson may be switched to in-field position.

St. Louis Cardinals—Catcher Gerald Burmeister reported. Pitcher Max Lanier, out with an appendicitis attack, is expected back in uniform in a day or so.

Detroit Tigers—Draft status of catcher Paul Richards is expected to be made known soon. He is scheduled to take pre-induction exam at Dallas.

Pittsburgh Pirates—A muddy diamond again forced team to work indoors.

Cleveland Indians—Team held outdoor batting drill despite cold and raw wind.

Make Last Offer

Philadelphia Phillies—Club has made last offer to holdout Coaker Triplett, General Manager Herb Pennock declared.

Philadelphia Athletics—Rookie Julian was reclassified 1-A and left for New York home to await physical exam.

New York Yankees—Team purchased second baseman Mike Mihalewicz from Kansas City. Pitcher Bill Zuber reported.

New York Giants—Ace Adams, veteran relief pitcher, worked out for first time this season. He pitched during batting practice.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Curt Davis, Bob Chapman, Bill Tanner and Hal Gregg were selected to pitch today's first exhibition game against Army team.

Boston Red Sox—With seven absences, Joe Cronin was concerned about two, Oscar Judd from Canada and Tom McBride from Little Rock, Ark. Others believed delayed travel difficulties from west coast.

By JACK HAND

Wilmington, Del., March 24 (AP)—Let's get it straight for the records. It's still the Phillips in the National league in Philadelphia although they'll wear a blue jay emblem on their shirts.

The late and lamented contest to select a new emblem for the club was the brainchild of Owner Bob Carpenter and his public relations man, Bill Phillips, who might have had in mind the value of some mid-winter publicity.

Returns flooded the Phil office, over 5,000 letters proposing 630 different emblems, but there was a healthy sized stack of mail from the dyed in the wool fans who begged that the Phillips be allowed to remain the Phillips.

Paul Richards, who caught 100 games last season, is expected back as Swift's aide. Eddie Boron and Al Unser are reserve infielders. And Charlie Metro and 38-year-old Chuck Hostetter are other outfielders.

The Tigers starting lineup, fashioned on O'Neill's current choices, averages 31 years a player. The average age of the entire 28-man squad is 29 years.

Change Emblem

Somebody in the front office had tired of always topping club letterhead with a picture of a Quaker or a William Penn so they started search for a substitute and wound up with an entirely new article—the blue jay.

Now the club is busy disclaiming any change in name, insisting that any resemblance between the new emblem and a foot remedy is purely coincidental and not emblematic of the proposed comebacks of Freddy Fitzsimmons, Merv Shea and Chuck Klein.

One letter came all the way from the South Pacific. Signed by 11 Chicago soldiers and sailors, it read in part:

"We know the name Phillips and pennant winner haven't been synonymous for a long time but we do remember going out to Wrigley field and seeing the Phils knock the tar out of our Cubs. Please keep them the Phillips."

Mr. and Mrs. Emory D. Strausbaugh, York street, have received word their son, CPO Bertus G. Strausbaugh, a member of the Seafarers, has arrived safely in the South Pacific area.

PIRATES WILL DEPEND ON 10 4-F PLAYERS

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

New York, (AP)—Ten players with 4-F cards assure Pittsburgh of staying in business this season, but the Pirates' hope of finishing in the first division of the National league depend chiefly on how long they keep their eight draft eligibles.

The BUCS face the prospect of losing three rookies pitching prizes who accounted for 50 victories last season—Art Cuccurullo of Albany, Preacher Roe of Columbus and Nick Strinevich of Toronto. All are 1-A. Art Cuccurullo, a 29-game winner, already has been ordered up for his physical examination.

Roe, a mathematics instructor and physical fitness director at the Melbourne, Arkansas, high school during the winter, would be missed especially. In winning 15 games for Columbus, he led the American association in strikeouts, with 136, and also in shutouts, with six.

May Cose Catchers

Other valuable draft eligibles are Veteran Al Lopez and Hank Camilli of Albany, the team's only regular catchers, and third baseman Bob Elliott, who led the club at the plate last year with a neat .315.

Among the 4-F's is Frank Zak of Toronto, a grab-all type shortstop who topped the International league in runs scored. Other infielders counted on to stay are Frankie Gustine, who can play all infield positions as well as catch; First Baseman Babe Dahlgren and Tony Orduna, University of Havana, Cuba, shortstop who comes up from Portsmouth of the mid-Atlantic league.

In the outfield are Johnny Barrett, who is bothered with an ear ailment; Frank Coleman, handicapped with a knee injury; switch-hitter Jim Russell, and 17-year-old Harry Amato of the Springfield, Ohio, American Legion team.

Beaten by Kentucky, Army, Temple and Canisius during their regular season of 19 games hardly anyone expected the Lapchik quintet to survive the first round, particularly after star Dick McGuire was transferred to Dartmouth.

In the outfield are Johnny Barrett, who is bothered with an ear ailment; Frank Coleman, handicapped with a knee injury; switch-hitter Jim Russell, and 17-year-old Harry Amato of the Springfield, Ohio, American Legion team.

Four pitchers have 4-F cards—Rip Sewell, whose "balloon ball" helped him to a 21-9 record last year, big Jimmy Gee, Xavier Rescigno, and Al Butcher.

Boston Red Sox—Outfielder Leon Culberson may be switched to in-field position.

St. Louis Cardinals—Catcher Gerald Burmeister reported. Pitcher Max Lanier, out with an appendicitis attack, is expected back in uniform in a day or so.

Detroit Tigers—Draft status of catcher Paul Richards is expected to be made known soon. He is scheduled to take pre-induction exam at Dallas.

Hazelton did what no team had been able to accomplish since Lebanon turned the trick in 1940. And the triumph gave the team an opportunity to equal Lower Merion's four state championships, the Mountaineers having won in 1928, 1929 and 1938.

Hank Belber and Stan Peacock led the Maroons' weak-attack with 10 and nine points respectively, but neither compared with Meinhold, who registered nine field goals and seven fouls on nine attempts. Philadelphia writers said the rangy red-head ranked with the finest schoolboy players in the state's history.

SWING SHIFT TO AID CARDS

By OSCAR KAHAN

Cairo, Ill., March 30 (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals has a "swing shift" squad to help solve the player shortage.

Several Cards can be transferred from one position to another in the event the service calls or injuries open gaps in the regular lineup.

Veterans Debs Garms and Pepper Martin are listed as outfielders but both have played third. Gams took turns at third and outfield with Pittsburgh in 1940, when he won the National league batting championship with .355. And Martin held down the hot corner for the 1934 world champion Cards.

Johnny Hopp is coming up for pre-induction examination, but he still is around the Cardinals will have an experienced outfielder and also a substitute for first-baseman Ray Sanders.

If he is induced, Southworth will prep second-baseman Emil Verban as Sanders' understudy. Verban played 49 games at first base for Houston of the Texas league in 1942, handling 396 chances with nine errors.

Most versatile Cardinal is a rookie from Sacramento, Mickey Burnett, outfielder and infielder.

New York, March 28 (AP)—Early odds today established Beau Jack a 4 to 3 betting favorite over Juan Zurita, the NBA lightweight boxing champion, in their non-title 10-round fight at Madison Square Garden Friday.

Philadelphia, March 28 (AP)—Tom Miller, 25-year-old end of the Philadelphia Eagles, has been rejected for military service because of a stomach ailment, bringing to 14 the number of 4-F Eagles available for the 1944 National League football campaign.

Chicago, March 28 (AP)—The spring version of bowling's richest individual event, the Petersen classic, will be held in Cleveland April 29 through May 7.

The tourney, open to bowlers having an average of 180 or better, will be limited to 800, competing for 190 prizes totaling $20,000 with a top award of $3,000.

Wilson Opens 75th Anniversary Fete

Wilson college at Chambersburg began the celebration last Friday night of the seventy-fifth anniversary of its chartering. A dinner for faculty and students opened a series of anniversary events that will continue until commencement.

The American woman's responsibility toward the nation and the world" is the theme of the two-month celebration. In weekly convocations guest speakers will discuss the part American women in general and American college women in particular should take in solving problems ranging from juvenile delinquency to international reconstruction.

Wilson received its charter from the Legislature of Pennsylvania seventy-five years ago, March 24, 1869, and admitted its first students October 12, 1870. It is the oldest college for women in Pennsylvania and one of the oldest in the nation.

FRICK CLAIMS GYM TRAINING HAS BENEFITS

New York, New York (AP)—While major league managers are moaning "who said ball teams never will train in the south again?" President Ford Frick of the National league can find a little sunshine in the clouds.

Stopping off in a snowstorm at Muncie, Ind., to visit the Pittsburgh Pirates, Frick pointed out that all clubs were suffering equally from bad weather.

"The players are deriving certain physical benefits by holding indoor exercises and hoping for a streak of sunshine," he commented. "I realize, however, it's impossible to judge by what the athletes do in the gym just how they will stack up in actual baseball conditions."

Boston Red Sox—Outfielder Leon Culberson may be switched to infield position.

St. Louis Cardinals—Catcher Gerald Burmeister reported. Pitcher Max Lanier, out with an appendicitis attack, is expected back in uniform in a day or so.

Detroit Tigers—Draft status of catcher Paul Richards is expected to be made known soon. He is scheduled to take pre-induction exam at Dallas.

Pittsburgh Pirates—A muddy diamond again forced team to work indoors.

Cleveland Indians—Team held outdoor batting drill despite cold and raw wind.

LOU NOVIKOFF MISSING FROM CHICAGO CAMP

By TED MEIER

New York, (AP) — Lou Novikoff, the "Mad Russian," apparently is up to his old trick of giving the Chicago Cubs the headache.

The slugging outfielder is among the absences from the Bruins' spring camp at French Lick, Ind.

Just as a year ago when Lou stayed away until after the season opened, rumors involving a Novikoff trade have started.

Warren Giles, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, is reported trying to talk Wilson into a swap for the outfielder.

Meantime the Cubs learned that pitcher Lon Warneke and outfielder Charlie Gilbert had passed their pre-induction physical exams and that slugger Jimmy Foxx will report Saturday to start his comeback.

The Chicago White Sox, also training at French Lick, were told by Johnny Humphries, one of their best pitchers, that he has been reclassified 1-A by his New Orleans draft board.

Outfielder Thurman Tucker said he wasn't included in the group called up for service by April 11 and hence expected to be around to play a few games for the Sox.

News from other big league camps:

Javery Cuts Loose

St. Louis Browns—Catcher Joe Schultz was ordered confined to hotel with sore throat.

Boston Braves—Pitcher Al Javery

the equivalent of three full games cut loose for first time. He pitched during batting practice.

Boston Red Sox—Outfielder Leon Culberson may be switched to infield position.

St. Louis Cardinals—Catcher Gerald Burmeister reported. Pitcher Max Lanier, out with an appendicitis attack, is expected back in uniform in a day or so.

Detroit Tigers—Draft status of catcher Paul Richards is expected to be made known soon. He is scheduled to take pre-induction exam at Dallas.

New York Giants—Ace Adams, veteran relief pitcher, worked out for first time this season. He pitched during batting practice.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Curt Davis, Bob Chipman, Bill Tanner and Hal Gregg were selected to pitch today's first exhibition game against Army team.

Chicago Cubs—Pitcher Paul Derringer, nursing a sprained ankle, has taken a few short turns on mound during batting practice and may be ready to face Detroit Saturday or Sunday.

Philadelphia Athletics—Rookie infielder Frankie Julian was reclassified 1-A and left for New York home to await physical exam.

New York Yankees—Team purchased second baseman Mike Mizevovich from Kansas City. Pitcher Bill Zuber reported.

New York Giants—Ace Adams, veteran relief pitcher, worked out for first time this season. He pitched during batting practice.

Rudy Wyatt, star right hander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, sent word to the Brooks' Bear Mountain, New York, camp that he had been reclassified 1-A and probably would be called soon for an examination.

News from other big league camps:

Yanks Seek Aid

New York Yankees—George Weiss, Yanks' farm system boss, was due to visit camp Thursday. But instead of seeking prospects for minor league clubs, his conference with Manager Joe McCarthy concerned mostly adding strength to the Yanks.

Boston Braves—After watching Nate Andrews pitch for batting practice, Manager Bob Coleman concluded he's due to be a 20-game winner.

Boston Red Sox—With seven absences, Joe Cronin was concerned about two, Oscar Judd from Canada and Tom McBride from Little Rock, Ark. Others believed delayed by travel difficulties from west coast.

Chicago Cubs—Pitcher Paul Derringer, nursing a sprained ankle, has taken a few short turns on mound during batting practice and may be ready to face Detroit Saturday or Sunday.

Cleveland Indians—Manager Lou Boudreau's decision to go home because of his daughter's sickness started rumors that he had been called by his draft board. Lou denied them.

Chicago White Sox—Jimmy Dykes named Thornton Lee, Bill Dierich and Orville Grove to pitch Saturday's exhibition against Pittsburgh.

Luby Missing

New York Giants—Whereabouts of infielder Hugh Luby, who hasn't been heard from since he was supposed to have left San Francisco March 23, provided a rainy-day puzzle.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Holdout Albie Galan was expected in camp today, but Dodgers had no word of unsigned pitcher Les Webber, who started from California last week or of Artie Vaughan.

Cincinnati Reds—Manager Bill McKechnie says Rookie Southpaw Arnold Carter, up from Syracuse, could be a big help now that Johnny Vander Meer is gone, though "this curve doesn't explode like Vandy's.

St. Louis Cards—Billy Southworth ordered longer workouts and full nine-inning games at every opportunity to make up for curtailed training.

Bobo Unreported

St. Louis Browns—Brown's prospects improving despite having only one outdoor workout. Eleven pitchers on hand and only one man on the hospital list.

Philadelphia Athletics—Connie Mack is wondering what has become of Bobo Newsom, who hasn't been heard from since training camp opened.

Detroit Tigers—Ralph Siewert, 6-foot 11-inch batting practice pitcher, was optioned to Memphis of Southern Association.

Sacramento, Calif., March 28 (AP)—Ty Cobb, Detroit's famed hitter and base runner of a generation ago, will be the lead-off batter for the Pacific Coast league this year.

Now an Atherton, California, businessman, Cobb has consented to step up to the plate against the pitch of Gov. Earl Warren of California when Los Angeles comes here April 8 to open the Pacific Coast league season.

Chicago, March 28 (AP)—The spring version of bowling's richest individual event, the Petersen classic, will be held in Cleveland April 29 through May 7.

The tourney, open to bowlers having an average of 180 or better, will be limited to 800, competing for 190 prizes totaling $20,000 with a top award of $3,000.

PIRATES WILL DEPEND ON 10 4-F PLAYERS

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Muncie, Indiana, (AP) — Ten players with 4-F cards assure Pittsburgh of staying in business this season, but the Pirates' hope of finishing in the first division of the National league depend chiefly on how long they keep their eight draft eligibles.

The BUCS face the prospect of losing three rookies pitching prizes who accounted for 50 victories last season—Art Cuccurullo of Albany, Preacher Roe of Columbus and Nick Strineck of Toronto. All are 1-A.

And Cuccurullo, a 20-game winner, already has been ordered up for his physical examination.

Roe, a mathematics instructor and physical fitness director at the Melbourne, Arkansas, high school during the winter, would be missed especially. In winning 15 games for Columbus, he led the American association in strikeouts, with 136, and also in shutouts, with six.

May Cose Catchers

Other valuable draft eligibles are Veteran Al Lopez and Hank Camelli of Albany, the team's only regular catchers, and third baseman Bob Elliott, who led the club at the plate last year with a neat .315.

Among the 4-F's is Frank Zak of Toronto, a grab-all type shortstop who topped the International league in runs scored. Other infielders counted on to stay are Frankie Gustine, who can play all infield positions as well as catch; First Baseman Babe Dahlgren and Tony Orduna, University of Havana, Cuba, shortstop who comes up from Portsmouth of the mid-Atlantic league.

In the outfield are Johnny Barnett, who is bothered with an ear ailment; Frank Coleman, handicapped with a knee injury, switch-hitter Jim Russell, and 17-year-old Harry Amato of the Springfield, Ohio, American Legion team.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest.

FREEDOM AND TYRANNY

Oh, what's it all about,
The bloodshed and the strife,
The heartache and the doubt
The fill the years of life?

And this they dare to say—
The Nazis and the Japs—
To find a better way!
To rearrange the maps!

A better way to what?
More glory for the few?
More helpless victims shot
For what they've dared to do?
Oh, when have tyrants grim,
Since first the world began,
Given any thought to him—
The ordinary man?

But ask the first you meet;
Who battles to be free,
Of land or sky or fleet,
And his reply will be:
"I want a chance to live
Beneath a gentle rule;
The right to earn and give,
The right to church and school.

I want a home secure
From hunger and despair;
The doctor's coming sure
When illness threatens there;
Good friends to come to call;
The chance to rest a bit;
And all the comforts small
Which tyrants won't permit."

NEW CHARM
From numberless sources all—loveliness springs.

From snow-covered mountains to butterfly wings;

From laughter and music and blossoms and bee;

Comes charm for us mortals to hear
And to see.

And now here's new splendor of which I must tell:

Ellen Elizabeth can't pronounce "I,"

Her "T's" are all "y's" at the start of a word.

Which makes it the loveliest speech ever heard.

Her ladies are "yadies." The little word, like,

In her rapid-fire utterance comes out as "yike."

And so sweetly it sounds that I say it as well.

Ellen Elizabeth can't pronounce "L,"

She writes me a "yetter" and over my book.

As I settle to read it, she begs for a "yook."

"I yove you!" she tells me. Has Heaven above

A richer delight than such innocent love?

Like magic, this holds us all fast in its spell:

Ellen Elizabeth can't pronounce "I."

THE POPULAR SEASON
Some run away from winter, and from summer others flee.

Some seem to think the weather always pleasant ought to be.

The snow makes friends of children, but when skies are cold and gray

The old who can afford it pack their grips and run away;

But a cherry tree in blossom is so beautiful a thing

That no one that I know of ever runs away from spring.

When school is out, and summer sets the city streets on fire.

To the seashore and the mountains many families retire.

The blazing sun of August for their comfort is too hot.

So they linger until autumn in a favorite, cooler spot;

But a cherry tree in blossom and the birds nearby to sing

Hold so much of charm and beauty no one runs away from spring.

Likes are likes and I don't quarrel with what suits my neighbor best.

When he runs away from winter
I have nothing to suggest.

When he finds the summer stifling and packs up and goes away

To a cottage by the seashore, I have not a word to say;

But I notice all come homing when the robins northward wing;

Everybody that I know stays about to greet the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Miller, New Oxford, R. 2, have received word that their son, Sgt. Fred L. Miller, has arrived safely in England. An other son, Ray F. Miller, also is in England.

Flashes Of Life

With Our Service Men

125-POUND FISH
Bridgeport, Conn. (AP)—The dwarf, Mary C, came to port here with the strangest "catch" of its career—a 125-pound aerial torpedo (unloaded) which Fisherman Patsy Camierda and John Paul said became entangled in their nets as they dragged for flatfish four miles out in Long Island Sound.

BUILT-IN

Gallup, N. M. (AP)—Charles
Kastning sold a player piano to a Navajo Indian, but the door to the Indian's mud, and log Hogan was too small to get it inside.

"Put the piano on the ground and build a new Hogan around it," suggested Kastning.

The Indian did, and the piano now is the envy of the tribesmen.

APARTMENT RANCHES

Omaha (AP)—Ted Miller, apartment house proprietor, who has had arguments about cats, dogs and children, took down his "no dogs allowed" sign and changed it to "no dogs or calves allowed."

A few days ago a young couple who had engaged an apartment from him tried to take a calf into their living quarters, he said.

EDUCATION
Kansas City (AP)—The dietary problem of Huey Swope Park zoo's personality sea lion, finally has been solved, but it required a scientific approach:

Huey arrived fresh from the Pacific ocean 32 days ago, turned up his nose at herring, would eat only large goldfish.

Finally, zoo director T. A. Cully cornered Huey, injected the mammal with an appetite-building solution and was able to switch Huey to sun perch. Later Cully mixed a little herring, then more, with the perch.
Now all Huey gets is herring—and likes it.

BROTHERS THREE
Boise, Idaho (AP)—The brothers
Ulmer, Harry 20, Henry 22, and Robert, 24, of Hicksville, Long Island, N. Y., were made staff sergeants at nearby Gowan Field at the same time.

They began their Army careers in February, 1943; trained at Shepard Field, Texas, and graduated from junior school together, then were assigned to their present station.

Ellis Avenue, Seattle, Washington.

Pvt. Carl W. Smith receives his mail G-3 Div. 1, Ft. Bragg, North Carolina.

MOVIE ATTRACTION
Los Angeles (AP)—Voter registration was rather slack last year.
So for Tuesday's enrollment Registrator Michael Donaghue has named among his deputies Eddie Cantor, Claudette Colbert and other film stars.

A PEASANT DREAM TO YOU
Evanson, Ill. (AP)—Humphrey
Davis dreamer he saw the devil, died tall and all. He deemed it prudent to retreat in his dream since he knew no man can whip the devil.

He awoke hanging head down from his bedroom window, his feet caught on the window cross-piece. His sister rescued him, and hospital physicians dressed his cuts when he backed through the glass.

IN THE GROOVE
New York (AP)—Dr. John Frederick Erdmann, who has performed more than 20,000 operations since he began practicing here 57 years ago, celebrated his 80th birthday by performing an operation.

Ellen Elizabeth can't pronounce "I."

She writes me a "yeiter" and over my book.

As I settle to read it, she begs for a "yook."

"I yove you," she tells me. Has Heaven above

A richer delight than such innocent love?

Like magic, this holds us all fast in its spell:

Ellen Elizabeth can't pronounce "I."

Some run away from winter, and from summer others flee.

Some seem to think the weather always pleasant ought to be.

The snow makes friends of children, but when skies are cold and gray

The old who can afford it pack their grips and run away;

But a cherry tree in blossom is so beautiful a thing

That no one that I know of ever runs away from spring.

When school is out, and summer sets the city streets on fire,

To the seashore and the mountains many families retire.

The blazing sun of August for their comfort is too hot,

So they linger until autumn in a favorite, cooler spot;

But a cherry tree in blossom and the birds nearby to sing

Hold so much of charm and beauty no one runs away from spring.

Likes are likes and I don't quarrel with what suits my neighbor best.

When he runs away from winter I have nothing to suggest.

When he finds the summer stifling and packs up and goes away

To a cottage by the seashore, I have not a word to say;

But I notice all come homing when the robins northward wing;

Everybody that I know stays about to greet the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Miller, New Oxford R. 2, have received word that their son, Sgt. Fred L. Miller, has arrived safely in England. Another son, Ray F. Miller, also is in England.

Flashes Of Life

125-POUND FISH
Bridgeport, Conn. (AP)—The dragger Mary C came to port here with the strangest "catch" of its career—a 125-pound aerial torpedo (unloaded) which Fishermen Patry Camerota and John Pall said became entangled in their nets as they dragged for fish just four miles out in Long Island Sound.

BUILT-IN

Gallup, N. M. (AP)—Charles Kastning sold player piano to a Navajo Indian, but the door to the Indian's mud and log Hogan was too small to get it inside.

"Put the piano on the ground and build a new Hogan around it," suggested Kastning.

The Indian did, and the piano now is the envy of the tribesmen.

APARTMENT RANCHES

Omaha (AP)—Ted Miller, apartment house proprietor, who has had arguments about cats, dogs and children, took down his "no dogs allowed" sign and changed it to "no dogs or calves allowed."

A few days ago a young couple who had engaged an apartment from him tried to take a calf into their living quarters, he said.

EDUCATION

Kansas City (AP)—The dietary problem of Huey, Swope Park zoo's persnickety sea lion, finally has been solved, but it required a scientific approach.

Huey arrived fresh from the Pacific ocean 32 days ago, turned up his nose at herring, would eat only large goldfish.

Finally zoo director T. A. Cully cornered Huey, injected the mammal with an appetite-building solution and was able to switch Huey to sun perch. Later Cully mixed a little herring, then more, with the perch. Now all Huey gets is her-ring—and likes it.

BROTHERS THREE

Boise, Idaho (AP)—The brothers Ulmer, Harry 20, Henry 22, and Robert, 24, of Hicksville, Long Island, N. Y., were made staff sergeants at nearby Gowan Field at the same time.

They began their Army careers in February, 1943; trained at Shepard Field, Texas, and graduated from gunnery school together, then were assigned to their present station.

With their wives, they live in the same apartment building here.

MOVIE ATTRACTION

Los Angeles (AP)—Voter registration was rather slack last year. So for Tuesday's enrollment Registrar Michael Donoghue has named among his deputies: Eddie Cantor, Claudette Colbert and other film stars.

A PEASANT DREAM TO YOU

Evanston, Ill. (AP)—Humphrey Davis dreamer he saw the devil, forked tail and all. He deemed it prudent to retreat in his dream since he knew no man can whip the devil.

He awoke hanging head down from his bedroom window, his feet caught on the window cross-piece. His sister rescued him, and hospital physicians dressed his cuts when he backed through the Texas.

Another letter of appreciation comes to this office from the Woman's Club of Gettysburg which sponsored the recent stage production of "The Five Little Peppers."

The letter, signed by Mrs. Paul Kinsey, chairman, Mrs. A. B. Blank, co-chairman, and Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, president of the club, follows:

"The Woman's Club of Gettysburg wishes to express its deep appreciation of the hearty and able assistance which The Gettysburg Times rendered in publicizing and explaining the nature and objects of the organization's efforts in sponsoring the play, "The Five Little Peppers," presented Wednesday afternoon by the Clare Tree Major company. The financial success of this effort was materially aided by your cooperation.

The enthusiastic reception accorded the play is the best compliment that could be offered the Gettysburg school board for their kind consideration in making the high school auditorium available for this production.

The new arrangement, OPA and ODT officials explained is designed to provide a closer check on the issuance of "T" rations.

Heretofore, the agencies said, many local War Price and rationing boards have mailed "T" ration coupons to non-fleet operators while fleet operators have applied in person.

Includes Cabs, Buses

Second quarter "T" rations will be issued in accordance with latest ODT certifications. Occasionally OPA and ODT officials said, a local board received information in advance of the ODT District Office that the status of a commercial motor vehicle operation has changed, resulting in a reduction of gasoline requirements. In such cases, however, the board will continue to issue rations in accordance with ODT certifications and then notify the ODT District Office which will make the appropriate adjustments in the ration certification.

Please send firemen in a hurry so they can save the tires. The car isn't worth much, but—

Both car and tires were saved.

COURT DENIES RECORD SALVAGE JURY TRIAL IN COLLECTION IS DIVORCE ACTION MADE TUESDAY

The Adams county court Tuesday morning turned down the request of Mrs. Mary E. Decker Gallagher, Gettysburg, that the divorce action brought against her by her husband, Hubert A. Gallagher, Gettysburg be brought before a jury.

In discharging the rule the court held that it was doing so because it felt that in view of the nature of the case and the effect on the Gallaghers' three children a jury trial "could not be had without prejudice to public morals." Mr. Gallagher is seeking a divorce on a charge of infidelity.

The decision of court was reached following a hearing Tuesday in which the opposing attorneys argued the merits of their claims and outlined in brief some of the evidence that would have been given at the trial.

Court Procedure

The request for a jury trial was the first in a number of years in the county court by the respondent in a divorce action. The usual procedure in divorce actions is for the court to appoint one of the county attorneys as master. The master takes testimony in the case and reports to the court together with his recommendations in the case. The court then either grants or denies the divorce depending upon the evidence, or may send the report back for further hearings to the master.

The court also ruled $50 council fees for the respondent, Mrs. Gallagher. Mrs. Gallagher, through Attorney J. Francis Yake, Jr., who is locally representing a York firm of attorneys handling Mrs. Gallagher's case, withdrew her claim for alimony in view of her husband's imminent induction into the armed forces and the allowance granted to the wives and families of service men. Mr. Gallagher testified that he will be inducted into the Marines April 3, according to word he has received from the Gettysburg draft board.

Mr. Gallagher had asked that the motion to hold a jury trial be disallowed because of his immediate induction which would prevent disposition of the case prior to his entry into the armed forces. Eugene V. Pullett, Esq., is representing Mr. Gallagher.

Wayne Killinger

Wayne Killinger, 23-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Killinger, Carlisle R. 2, died Monday afternoon at their home.

Survivors are the parents, three brothers and a sister, Foster, Fred, Raymond and Ruth, all at home; grandparents, Roy Killinger, Mt. Zion, and Mr. and Mrs. William Kuykendall, Gettysburg R. 5, and great-grandfather, Thomas Geedy, Carlisle.

T. E. Stonesifer

Theodore E. Stonesifer, 78, Brodbeck R. 1, a resident of Littlestown for many years, died Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the Hanover hospital where he had been admitted as a patient the day before. Mr. Stonesifer, the last surviving member of the family, was a son of the late George and Lucinda Swope Stonesifer. His wife, who before marriage was Prudence Ocher, preceded him in death a number of years ago.

One daughter survives, Mrs. M. P. Gisriel of Detroit, Mich., a number of grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews residing in Littlestown and York.

Funeral services Thursday 10 a.m. at the J. W. Little and Son funeral home, Littlestown. The Rev. David K. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Littlestown, will officiate. Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Dallastown.

Mrs. John H. Shanesbrook

Mrs. Maggie Catherine Shanesbrook, 71, wife of John H. Shanesbrook, Heldersberg township, Spring Grove R. D. 3, died Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock.

She was a daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Sturry Sach, and was born September 25, 1872. She was a member of the Pines Lutheran church, New Chester.

Surviving are her husband; five children, Mrs. Archie Sturms and Mrs. Luther Decker, both of New Oxford, R. D. 2; Charles H. Shanesbrook, Tully, New York; John A. Shanesbrook, S. 2-C, United States Navy, and Mark G. Shanesbrook, Spring Grove R. D.; twenty-three grandchildren; eleven great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. William Kitzmiller, Baltimore.

Funeral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the W. A. Feiser funeral home, Carlisle street, Hanover, with the Rev. Elmer Drumm, pastor of the New Chester Lutheran church, and the Rev. J. Harold Little, a former pastor, officiating. Burial in St. Luke's church cemetery, Adams county.

Adam C. Stocker

Word has been received here of the death on March 9 of Adam C. Stocker, 69, at Greenville, Ohio. Mr. Stocker, who was a cooperative executive at Greenville, was related to the Walker and Witherow families in this county and had visited here on a number of occasions. The funeral was held March 12.

George W. Hess

George W. Hess, 77, died Sunday night in Cumberland township following an illness of two months.

The deceased was born in Adams county, a son of the late George W. and Amanda (Ebersole) Hess, and lived practically his entire life in Biglerville and vicinity. He was a barrel maker by trade. His wife, the former Jane Albert, died in 1912.

Surviving are four children: Earl C. California; Mrs. George H. Flint, Mechanicsburg; William, Telford, Pa., and Sgt. Joseph A. Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; seven grand-

GHS STUDENTS SHARE HONORS WITH CARLISLE

Carlisle and Gettysburg shared honors Saturday at the annual secondary school forensic contests held at the SCA building and at the Hotel Gettysburg under the sponsorship of Gettysburg college.

Carlisle high school won the debating contests during the afternoon while Miss Barbara Cline, of Gettysburg high school won first honors in the afterdinner speeches given at the Hotel Gettysburg in the evening.

Arguing on the question: "Resolved, that the United States Should Join in Reconstituting the League of Nations," the affirmative team from Carlisle comprising Robert soon, second affirmative, and both as Frey, first affirmative; Joseph Burfirst and second rebuttalist in that order, and alternate Kathleen Calaman, won the honors in the debate.

The negative team from Gettysburg comprised, first constructive negative, Joseph Hanawalt; second constructive negative, Gloria Ecker; first negative rebuttal, Joseph Hanawalt; second negative rebuttal, John Knott.

Dr. Hanson Speaks

Judges for the debate were Profs. Robert Fortenbaugh, W. C. Waltemyer, and George R. Larkin, of the college faculty.

Dr. Thomas L. Cline, head of the English department at the college, who was in charge of the debate, acted as toastmaster for the after-dinner talks. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanan, president of the college, gave an address on "The Opportunities and Responsibilities of High School Students." Miss Cline spoke on "The Parliament of Man"—Woodrow Wilson. The runner-up, Eugene Billieck, Carlisle, spoke on "World Citizenship"—Wendell Willkie. Only two of the six students listed for afterdinner talks were present, with three ill and one undergoing an examination for entrance into the Army. About 30 attended the dinner.

Judges for the afterdinner talks were Dean W. E. Tilberg, and Profs. George S. Warthen and Francis C. Mason, of the college faculty.

Breaks Leg In Fall Wednesday

Garland Baker, 23, Gettysburg R. 1, was treated at the Warner hospital Saturday for a fractured right leg received last Wednesday in Wilmington, Delaware, when he fell from a cattle chute while assisting in the loading of cattle.

New Pennies Will Relieve Shortage

The "penny headache" may soon disappear with the arrival here of a shipment of new copper pennies, destined to replace the former penny that looked like a dime but was only worth a cent.

The new pennies of 1944 mintage look exactly like the old copper penny . . . of same color, size and appearance. It does not have the silver lustre which so confused dealers and others.

Registration For Primaries Closed

If the last three days of registrations prior to the primaries in April are any criterion, things are going Republican, clerks of the county election board noted Saturday.

Saturday was the last time for registration, changing of addresses or changes of party affiliation prior to the primaries. On the three days up to this morning 12 new voters had registered — all Republican — and there were four changes of party affiliation, all from Democratic to Republican.

PALM SUNDAY PLANS

The rite of confirmation will be administered to a class of three catechumens at St. Mark's Evangelical Reformed church, Palm Sunday, at 9 a.m. The class consists of Arnold James Beamer, Wilbur Lain and William Schull. Other members will be received by letter of transfer. The church choir will sing the "Palms." Services will be held during Holy Week on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m.

The preparatory service will be held Wednesday evening.

SADLER TO MARINES

The local draft board told The Gettysburg Times today that Clarence Mervin Sadler, 26 Franklin street, included in their list of Navy men called for induction April 3, should have been included in the group slated for Marine duty. Sadler is a volunteer.

Red Cross Locates Handbag For Woman

The handbag lost by an Army lieutenant's wife near Gettysburg and reported to the Adams county Red Cross late Friday was on its way to the owner Monday, with the bag having been found by Raymond Stotler, owner of the Battlefield hotel service station.

Mr. Stotler turned the bag over to the Red Cross after reading of the loss in The Gettysburg Times, Saturday. He found the bag some time after the lieutenant and his wife, enroute from Texas to visit his parents at Great Neck, Long Island, had left the station, Friday morning.

RED CROSS WAR FUND NEARING $20,000 MARK

The Adams County Red Cross War Relief campaign neared the $20,000 mark Monday with $16,880.44 turned in to the county office here and $2,526.73 reported by the Rev. Kenneth James, Littlestown chairman, as having been collected in that area.

Because the Littlestown amount has not been turned in to the county office, it is not included in the county total, nor has there been any report so far of the amount collected in the East Berlin area.

H. S. Teachers 100%

A $50 contribution was listed Monday by the Gettysburg Eagles Lodge, bringing to $100 the amount turned in by that organization so far.

The first $50 donation was made in January. A contribution of $69.50 was received from the teachers of Gettysburg high school who subscribed 100 per cent.

The division of the amounts contributed so far by districts was announced today by the Red Cross as follows:

REV. FOX SPEAKS ON DELINQUENCY

While child delinquency is increasing by as much as 100 percent in some cases, united efforts by parents, organizations and churches can do much to combat the delinquency, the Rev. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed church, told the members of the local POS of A at a dinner at the Battlefield hotel Thursday evening celebrating the 55th anniversary of the local organization.

Much of the delinquency is directly attributable to the parents who neglect their youngsters and allow them to roam the streets at will, developing as they please. Those youngsters fortunate enough to avoid the wrong type of companionship may develop all right despite the laxity of the parents, but most fall into difficulties with the law, the Rev. Fox said.

Jesse P. Snyder, district president of the POS of A delivered the address of welcome. Cervus W. Myers, a member of the local group for over 50 years, talked briefly on the organization of the camp. Paul Snyder acted as master of ceremonies.

The musical portion of the program included songs by a mixed quartet including Mr. and Mrs. Donald Myers, the Rev. Mr. Fox and Paul Snyder and piano duets by the Rev. Mr. Fox and Miss Alice Snyder. Dawson Miller was chairman of the committee in charge of the banquet which was attended by 30 members.

PRESENT FLAG AT BIGLERVILLE

A program by the grade school children was presented at the meeting of the Biglerville Parent-Teachers' association Tuesday evening at the school auditorium. An unusually large attendance marked the meeting at which the president, Rowe Martin, presided.

The pallbearers were William Myers and Harry Diehl, uncles of the deceased, and Fred Baltzley and Homer Baltzley, cousins.

Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. J. D. Miller. Mrs. Henry W. Sternat reported for the visiting committee to the high school and Mrs. Earl Crum for the committee appointed to visit the grade schools.

Prof. L. V. Stock, supervising principal, presented the tin can salvage flag to George Inskip, grade school principal, which was won last month with an average of 58.8 cans per pupil. The flag was held the previous month by the Lincoln school building, Gettysburg.

The association voted a sum of money to Miss Jean Fohl to be used for the purchase of books.

The program included a group of selections by the rhythm band of the first and second grades, choral numbers by the third and fourth grade pupils, and the presentation of a playlet by the fifth and sixth grades. Also included on the program were numbers by the high school chorus.

CHANGES MADE IN CAGE RULES

New York, (AP) — The "string beans" of high school and college basketball no longer will be able to jump up and bat the ball away from the basket when it appears a field goal is certain.

Complying with a widespread demand by coaches that excessively tall players be prevented from using their length for such an advantage, the National Basketball Committee yesterday adopted a rule that prohibits players from touching the ball on its downward arc, unless the shot is obviously short of the hoop.

The committee also adopted three other rule changes in concluding a two-day session. These provide for five, instead of four personal fouls, before a player is banished from the game; permit a player to re-enter the game an unlimited number of times; and grant the officials authority to suspend play immediately in case of an injury to a player.

CHAPEL FILLED FOR CONCERT

The Church of the Abiding Presence on the campus of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary campus was filled Sunday evening for the concert by the seminary choir of 27 voices under the direction of Parker B. Wagnid.

The concert of sacred music, divided into three groups, featured solos by George M. Hershberger, Howard J. McCarter and Charles E. Deitz.

Dr. Abel Ross Wentz, Seminary president, spoke during the intermission between the second and third sections of the program and announced plans for a special concert on May 11, during Seminary Week activities leading up to commencement.

Invitations have been sent to about 70 alumni of the seminary who were members of former choirs at the seminary to return to sing with the present choir at the Seminary Week program. The first half of the concert will be given by the present choir while the second will be presented by the augmented choir expected to number 60 voices.
